Resources in Education ,1989 Vivian Castleberry Kimberly Wilmot Voss,2023-03-06 Considered by some as the most important woman in Dallas in the latter half of the 20th century Vivian Castleberry was a force for women nationally and internationally In shining a light on her career more becomes known about her fights and her victories Through this book historians can better understand that the relationship of the women s pages to the women s movement between the 1950s and 70s was more complex than previously explored Known as the godmother of the Dallas women s movement Vivian was a trailblazer Yet she was also a mother of five daughters at a time when working outside the home was still being challenged and that was an experience many middle class women struggled with Her role in the public sphere meant she often told the stories of others This book is her story Video Rating Guide for Libraries ,1991 Re-Evaluating Women's Page Journalism in the Post-World War II Era Kimberly Wilmot Voss,2018-09-05 Re Evaluating Women s Page Journalism in the Post World War II Era tells the stories of significant women s page journalists who contributed to the women s liberation movement and the journalism community Previous versions of journalism history had reduced the role these women played at their newspapers and in their communities if they were mentioned at all For decades the only place for women in newspapers was the women s pages While often dismissed as fluff by management these sections in fact documented social changes in communities These women were smart feisty and ahead of their times They left a great legacy for today s women journalists This book brings these individual women together and allows for a broader understanding of women s page journalism in the 1950s and 1960s It details the significant roles they played in the post World War II years laying the foundation for a changing role for women Catalog of Visual Media Suburban Library System (Burr Ridge, Ill.). Bowker Consortium of College and University Media Centers,1990 The Political Marketing Revolution Jennifer Lees-Marshment,2004 This book shows how British politics is being transformed from a leadership run system to one dictated by public needs and demands No longer confined to party politics organisations including the monarchy the BBC universities local councils charities and the Scottish Parliament are adopting the tools of market intelligence to understand their market needs and demands The political marketing revolution raises many questions such as

whether the student or patient really does know best and can decide their own education and health care The book calls for a debate about the movement of the British political system towards a market orientation and a re negotiation of the relationship between leaders and the market Whilst recognising the need for political leaders to listen this debate places some responsibilities on the political consumer looking to create a new relationship that might work more effectively for both sides

The Beginning and the End of the World

Robert Crawford,2011-06-14 In a work of spectacular imagination and remarkable synthesis poet Robert Crawford celebrates St Andrews the first town in the world to have its people buildings and natural environment thoroughly documented through photography The Beginning and the End of the World tells the stories of several pioneering Scottish photographers linking their work to one of the nineteenth century s most scandalous and hotly debated publications Here is the extraordinary intellectual life of an eccentric society rich in apocalyptically minded Victorian inventors and authors whose work has had an international impact The protagonists include a very quarrelsome professor a cello playing ex military golfer a notorious scientist a married couple coping with mental breakdown and a physician obsessed with sewage In paying full attention to these people s inter relationship implicitly and explicitly this book suggests that their lasting legacies may have a bearing on our own arguments about environmental sustainability and the possibility of largescale extinction
