The Greatest Communicator:

Making of the Great Communicator Kenneth Holden, 2013-05-07 One week after Ronald Reagan announced his candidacy for governor of California the San Francisco Chronicle gibed It was simply a flagrant example of miscasting Reagan was tanking and his businessmen backers panicked Their bold experiment was about to fail Then a think tank friend suggested the expertise of two UCLA social psychologists Kenneth Holden and Stanley Plog agreed to take the job only if they could have three full days alone with Reagan The candidate and his backers agreed and the three men disappeared into a Malibu beach house Those three days remade the bumbling neophyte into an articulate confident politician whose devastating sound bites shredded the opposition Holden or Plog remained by Reagan's side for the rest of the campaign feeding him information about California's problems teaching him to handle the press writing his position papers and helping develop the programs he offered all while battling factions of the campaign team who seemed determined to sabotage their own man Not everyone who voted for Reagan supported his positions but voters preferred his honesty and forthrightness to the waffling of other politicians Reagan won by a landslide Holden and Plog had shaped an actor into a governor but they were also turning a governor into a president Here is the untold story of how they did it Ronald Reagan: The Great Communicator
