The Chosen People

The Chosen People:

The Story of the Stories Dan Jacobson, 1983 The God-Given Land. Religious perspectives on land reform in South Africa ,2009 The Fifth World Francis J. Cebulski, Frank Cebulski, 2010 Nearly all of the poems in this collection were written within a period of three months consecutively one a day I deliberately set myself the task of writing a poem a day for as long as I could sustain the effort and keep my creative energy flowing I had before in my writing career brief periods of intense creativity where I wrote poems every day for example when I was finishing my sonnet sequence Mediterranean Sonnets I wrote fourteen sonnets in as many days These are memorable creative episodes because they don't come often and the poems deriving from such an intense focused activity are always unified and consistent in a qualitative manner by form and technique metrics and poetic pulsion The imagination grasps things with unusual clarity These sessions are always pleasurable because as Seamus Heaney once said to me after he himself had experienced such a period of creativity and productivity they bolster a bit the poet's belief in his own genius Not that genius should be measured by the bucketful but there is a certain confirmed value in sustained performance Many poets of course have achieved similar and greater feats of poetic muscularity in the modern era Rilke for one in writing Sonnets to Orpheus February 25 1922 at Chateau de Muzot in Switzerland and William Carlos Williams who wrote something every day for a year for Kora in Hell Improvisations 1917 September 1918 published in 1920 and this while he was working every day as a pediatrician and general physician in his other profession Williams vowed not to change a word as written of course this did not happen as his critical faculties prevailed as have mine in this collection I am myself pleased and surprised by how many of these poems stand as first written Israel Yearbook on Human Rights 1987 1988-05-01 The Israel Yearbook on Human Rights an annual published under the auspices of the Faculty of Law of Tel Aviv University since 1971 is devoted to publishing studies by distinguished scholars in Israel and other countries on human rights in peace and war with particular emphasis on problems relevant to the State of Israel and the Jewish people The Yearbook also incorporates documentary materials relating to Israel and the Administered Areas which are not otherwise available in English including summaries of judicial decisions compilations of legislative enactments and military proclamations The Articles section of Volume 33 contains articles on Legal Aspects of Emergency Regimes Pagans in the Promised Land Steven Newcomb, 2008-01-01 Pagans in the Promised Land provides a unique well researched challenge to U S federal Indian law and policy It attacks the presumption that American Indian nations are legitimately subject to the plenary power of the United States The Chosen People John Allegro, 2015-03-06 The Chosen People tells the history of the Jews from the conquest of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon in 587 B C E to the Second Jewish Revolt of C E 132 John Allegro bases his account on traditional texts books of the Old Testament Josephus Philo Judaeus Dio Cassius and others and sets out the complicated parade of plots counter plots betrayals and insurrections in a brisk and highly readable sequence His main theme is how the conception of the Jewish nation as a divinely chosen race was planted as a political ambition among the exiled Jews Bringing together old customs and stories the idea was fired by the longing of the Babylonian Jews for their traditional homeland Many of them grew prosperous outside Palestine and their wealthy communities manipulated the wish for identity in the idea of an exclusive Judaism embodied as a political state and fighting for autonomy against local and imperial neighbors more dream than fact The author writes that When the new Judaism came to be hammered out after the return from captivity it was around these ancient customs and a historicized mythology that it was fashioned The religion was devised not as popularly presented by gift of the desert god Yahweh who had manifested himself in opposition to the Canaanite fertility god Baal but by reinterpreting the Sumerian idea of a life giving god over many generations For there was no fundamental opposition the god names originally meant the same This second edition features a new introduction by James M Donovan

The Earliest Commentary on the Prophecy of Habakkuk Timothy H. Lim, 2020-04-09 This is the first major commentary in English on Peshar Habakkuk for forty years It elucidates the nature of 1QpHab as the earliest commentary on the prophecy of Habakkuk by a detailed study of the biblical quotation and sectarian interpretation This commentary provides a new edition of the scroll including new readings and detailed palaeographical philological exegetical and historical notes and discussion It shows that the pesherist imitates the allusive style of the oracles of Habakkuk and also draws on lexemes phrases and themes from other biblical texts and Jewish sources It shows that the pesherist identified the Kittim with the Romans who conquered Judaea in 63 BCE and suggests that the scroll refers to several righteous and wicked figures including the last Hasmonean high priests

The Story of the Chosen People Hélène Adeline Guerber, 1896 The Election of Israel David Novak, 1995-05-04 In this book David Novak conducts an historical philosophical and theological reflection on the central Jewish doctrine of Israel's election by God also known as the idea of the chosen people Historically he analyses the great change in modern Jewish thought brought about by Spinoza's inversion of the doctrine that it was not God who elected Israel but Israel who elected God The development of that inversion is illustrated by the thought of the German philosopher theologian Hermann Cohen Philosophically Novak explores the ontological implications of the two differing theologies of election Theologically he argues for the correlation of election and revelation and maintains that a theology of election is required in order to deal with two central questions namely who are the Jews and how are Jews to be related to the world The constructive picture which results leads to a fresh understanding of Jewish modernity The Story of the Chosen People Hélène Adeline Guerber, 1924

Freemasonry from the Great Pyramid of Ancient Times Thomas Holland, 1885 Western and Northern Europe 1940-June 1942 Katja Happe, Michael Mayer, Maja Peers, 2021-12-31 Executive editors Katja Happe Michael Mayer and Maja Peers with Jean Marc Dreyfus English language edition prepared by Caroline Pearce Johannes Gamm Georg Felix Harsch and Dorothy Mas In April May 1940 the German Wehrmacht invaded Northern and Western Europe The subsequent occupation of Norway Denmark the Netherlands Belgium Luxembourg and France brought the Jewish population of these countries both established residents and refugees under German control From autumn 1941 in Luxembourg and from spring summer 1942 in Belgium the Netherlands and occupied France Jews were required to wear the Jewish star and many were subjected to forced labour By mid 1942 deportations from Luxembourg and France to the ghettos and extermination camps in occupied Eastern Europe had already begun while in the other occupied countries they were imminent In April 1942 Alfred Oppenheimer the Jewish elder in Luxembourg wrote A dreadful fate hangs over our community again The worst that can happen has now happened and the Poland transport is a certainty This volume covers Norway and Western Europe during the period from the German invasion to mid 1942 developments in Denmark for this period are documented in vol 12 and records how Jews in these parts of Europe were excluded from society and stripped of their rights livelihoods and property Letters and diary entries by the persecuted Jews detail life under German occupation and the attempts by many Jews to emigrate The sources show how Jewish organizations sought to alleviate the impact of persecution and how the German occupiers and local collaborators targeted Jews with increasingly stringent measures and clamped down on any form of resistance Learn more about the PMJ on <https://pmjdocuments.org> The Settlement After the War in South Africa Michael James Farrelly, 1900 The Bible for Young People: From David to Josiah Henricus Oort, 1877 The New Chosen People, Revised and Expanded Edition William W. Klein, 2015-11-25 Controversy rages on about God's choosing people for salvation Are only the few elect Rather than typically beginning with the preconceptions of systematic theologies Dr William Klein takes up this question by searching for a biblical theology of election He surveys the OT contexts of God's choosing individuals prophets priests kings to serve divine purposes and considers God's election of the nation of Israel as his special people This OT study proposes that God's election is both individual and corporate but not always determinative Individuals entered the people of God by birth but not all the people found salvation Faith in Yahweh was required This book traces these elective understandings through the intertestamental literature identifying continuities and shifts The bulk of the study and the heart of the argument focus on the New Testament Klein identifies concepts of election and relationships between writers in the gospels the Lucan material Paul's writings and the rest The new covenant God choosing the church in Christ emphasizes election as corporate while the individual election of Jesus disciples and of Paul raises the question whether such chosenness is necessarily salvific In closing Klein discusses the most engaging and divisive questions around God's election and offers a real challenge to today's church The Holy Catholic Church Edward Meyrick Goulburn, 1874 The Atlantic Monthly, 1899 The Open Court Paul Carus, 1898 The new Popular educator, 1899 Quarterly Review of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, 1885
