Preface It may seem adventurous to propose to read the Gospel of Christ from what Herschel calls those uncouth figures and outlines of men and monsters usually scribbled over celestial globes and maps So it once would have seemed to the writer But a just estimate of the case cannot be formed without a close survey of what these figures are what relations they bear to each other whence they originated and what meaning was attached to them by the most ancient peoples from whom they have been transmitted to us Such a survey the author of this volume has endeavored to make From an extended induction he has also reached conclusions which lead him to think he may do good service by giving publicity to the results of his examinations The first suspicion that the original constellations may perhaps have come from a divine or prophetic source was impressed upon the writer's mind in connection with his studies of the marvellous wisdom embodied in the Great Pyramid of Gizeh But it came only in the shape of an inference which needed to be tested on its own independent grounds before it could be reasonably accepted That inference however was so direct and the subject seemed so worthy of being investigated that a course of special study was instituted to ascertain apart from all pyramid theories whether the facts and probabilities in the case would warrant a conclusion of so much moment If any others have treated directly or even incidentally of what is sought to be shown in this volume its author has not discovered their records or their names With but little therefore but the star maps and descriptions as given by astronomers and such notices of the constellations as are to be found in the remains of antiquity and general literature he had to make his way as best he could With what success he has done his work and in how far his conclusions are entitled to credit or respect he now submits to the decision of a candid and intelligent public

years any known religious faith which failed to recognize the existence and power of the true God The evidence is strong which maintains that these devices had their origin in the very earliest ages of the world and this one fact proved as it seems to be may be accepted as excellent testimony to their divine origin and if that origin was divine then it is fair to attempt as Dr S does to ascertain what was the purpose of their arrangement If the hand of the Creator appears in these signs confessed thrcjgb all the centuries tc be surrounded by mystery and having a persistent existence which cannot be accounted for by the action of purely human agencies then it is a fair inference that there is behind them some wonderful and eternal purpose which man in a just spirit of reverence may seek to detect Thus The J Ycphetic Times says The correspondence between the starry groups and the Sacred Scriptures is traced with a vigorous pen and invested with an absorbing interest as vivid as it is novel and we rise from its perusal with the conviction that there can be no     The Gospel in the Stars Joseph Augustus Seiss,1996     The Gospel in the Stars Joseph Augustus Seiss,2014-03 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book     The Gospel in the Stars, Or Primeval Astronomy (Classic Reprint) Joseph A. the desert feeding his sheep could make up songs of praise to God A shepherd named David who had no Bible no computer and probably no literacy at all could look up at the stars and declare the handy work of God God took Abraham a Lunar worshipper and changed him into a Celestial worshipper that he could be called the father of faith Jesus spent Forty Days and Forty nights in the wilderness with only the stars at night to show Him His destiny and the Father's plan for His life By the time you finish reading this you will see that the Zodiac and all the stars belong to God He knows them by name and it was His hand that placed them in the Heavens
