The Groundings With My Brothers:

The Groundings With My Brothers Walter Rodney, 2019-04-23 I have sat on a little oil drum rusty and in the midst of garbage and some black brothers and I have grounded together Walter Rodney In his short life the Guyanese intellectual Walter Rodney emerged as one of the leading thinkers and activists of the anticolonial revolution leading movements in North America South America the African continent and the Caribbean In each locale Rodney found himself a lightning rod for working class Black Power His deportation catalyzed 20th century Jamaica s most significant rebellion the 1968 Rodney riots and his scholarship trained a generation how to think politics at an international scale In 1980 shortly after founding of the Working People s Alliance in Guyana the 38 year old Rodney would be assassinated In this classic work published in the heady days of international black power Groundings with My Brothers details the global circulation of emancipatory ideas but also offers first hand reports of Rodney s mass movement organizing Introduced and contextualized by leading Caribbean scholar activists this updated edition brings Rodney s legacy to a new generation of radicals Moving Against the System David Austin, 2018-09-07 In 1968 as protests shook France and war raged in Vietnam the giants of Black radical politics descended on Montreal to discuss the unique challenges and struggles facing their brothers and sisters For the first time since 1968 David Austin brings alive the speeches and debates of the most important international gathering of Black radicals of the era Against a backdrop of widespread racism in the West and colonialism and imperialism in the Third World this group of activists writers and political figures gathered to discuss the history and struggles of people of African descent and the meaning of Black Power With never before seen texts from Stokely Carmichael Walter Rodney and C L R James Moving Against the System will prove invaluable to anyone interested in Black radical thought as well as capturing a crucial moment of the political activity around 1968 Groundings with My Brothers Rodney Walter, 1990 Black 1968 Timothy H. Parsons, 2025-02-25 Initially the 1960s was a time of understandable optimism The civil rights movement and the legislation it inspired suggested an end to institutionalized racism in the United States while in the Global South the emergence of independent states anticipated political liberation and increased prosperity So when racial discrimination entrenched privilege cold war politics and fiscal reality dashed these hopes later in the decade the world experienced a wave of protests Conventional narratives of 1968 focus on student strikes revolutions and coups assassinations and the reactionary backlash that they inspired The chapters of Black 1968 reveal the imperfectly documented and heretofore unrecognized bonds that led peoples of African descent around the world to articulate new global conceptions of Blackness as a way to mount local challenges to racism segregation colonialism economic exploitation generational authority and cultural chauvinism This book will be of interest to general readers interested in the global 1968 as well as scholars of Blackness and global history Africa in Black Liberation Activism Tunde Adeleke, 2016-12-19 This book analyzes three of the most accomplished twentieth century black diaspora activists Malcolm X Stokely Carmichael and Walter Rodney All began their careers in the Diaspora and later turned toward Africa This became the foundation for developing and solidifying a global force that would advance the struggles of Africans and people of African descent in the Diaspora Adeleke explores this African centered discourse of resistance which informed the collective struggles of these activists The book illuminates shared attributes and differences presenting these men as unified by a struggle against and resistance to shared historical and cultural challenges The Groundings with My Brothers Walter Anthony Rodney,1970 one love pam wint,1971
