Steering Clear Avoiding The Slippery Slope To Moral Failure:

Steering Clear Earl D. Wilson, 2002-08-22 Most people never plan on moral compromise. Instead, it begins innocently and subtly with a flirtatious conversation or the click of a mouse. The mind dwells on the temptation and soon enough the fantasy becomes a reality. Then comes the downward spiral of rationalization and denial of addiction and guilt. Though we may retreat into our defenses and ignore the red flags, inevitably the truth comes to light and we suffer the consequences. In the wake of the crash are shattered lives, broken marriages, and ruined ministries. As more and more Christians find themselves trapped in patterns of sexual, emotional, and financial sin, the church desperately needs resources for prevention, intervention, and restoration. Psychologist Earl D. Wilson provides a penetrating look at the slippery slope to moral failure, uncovering how our self-delusions fuel ethical compromise. With psychological and biblical insight, he identifies how distorted thinking leads to secretive behavior and describes effective strategies for breaking bad habits. Only by bringing such things to light can we open the door to true repentance, change, and freedom. Here is practical help for those who want to get off and stay off the slippery slope, as well as hope and healing for those picking up the pieces after a crash. Though the road may not be easy, forgiveness and wholeness are possible. This book serves as an essential companion for those who want to live with integrity and those who minister to them. Fruitful Boughs Broken Glenn C. Taylor, 2019-06-15 Responding to failure in ministry is painful for all touched by it. The journey toward failure is unchosen, undesired, and unplanned. When it occurs, we all ask ourselves this one question: why? The result of failure is the loss of many well-trained and adequately equipped men and women from churches. Often they disappear into oblivion. This has been true throughout history. It's not a new problem. Witness the experiences of Abraham, David, Elijah, and Peter in Scripture. They served well, but they also failed, disappointing God and their associates. Modern pastors too become entrapped in situations of fear, loneliness, depression, and failure. We must address ways to prevent failure and learn about possibilities for intervention in order to be the witnessing church that God intends us to be.
