Current biography yearbook Charles Moritz, 1973 Norman Lear Tripp Whetsell, 2024-11-12 An in depth telling of the Norman Lear's seven decade career that Publishers Weekly calls a lovingly detailed portrait and a fitting tribute to a consequential figure in television history and Booklist praises as an extensive and comprehensive look at a comedic legend Beginning in the 1970s writer and producer Norman Lear forever altered the television landscape with such groundbreaking situation comedies as All in the Family Maude Good Times Sanford and Son The Jeffersons and One Day at a Time For over half a century his body of work boldly tackled race class sexuality politics and religion topics previously considered too taboo to be the subject of comedy on the small screen Norman Lear His Life and Times is the unforgettable story of an extraordinary seven decade career Veteran author and entertainment journalist Tripp Whetsell offers an intimate portrait of Lear that is the product of years of research and numerous interviews Whetsell shows how Lear created the gold standard for television comedies producing shows that were the first to give underrepresented members of society an authentic prime time voice while encouraging audiences to confront their own humanity and shortcomings In the process he explores one of television's most transformative periods detailing Lear's legacy as one of its chief architects and catalysts This affectionate and candid tribute combines show business history with an illuminating consideration of the inner workings of the man in the white hat a figure who singlehandedly redefined an entire medium by reflecting the world around him Harry H. Corbett: The Front Legs of the Cow Susannah Corbett, 2011-11-30 Harry H Corbett rose from the slums of Manchester to become one of the best known television stars of the 20th century Having left home as a 17 year old Royal Marine during the Second World War he fought in the North Atlantic and the jungles of the Pacific and witnessed first hand the devastation wrought by the Hiroshima bomb On his return home he wandered into the local theatre company and landed a starring role The Front Legs of the Cow Soon becoming a leading light in Joan Littlewood's Theatre Workshop and a widely respected classical stage actor his life was changed forever by the television comedy Steptoe and Son Overnight he became a household name as the series drew unparalleled viewing figures of over 28 million with fans ranging from the working classes to the Royal Family

Naturally shy and a committed socialist fame and fortune didn't sit easily on his shoulders and for the next twenty years until his untimely death at the age of only 57 he had to learn how to be Arold Written by his daughter Susannah Corbett an actor herself this is the first biography of Harry H Corbett the man who was once described as being the English Marlon Brando
