Stillborn Longman Africa:

The Stillborn Z. Alkali, 1995-01 This novel is centred around the experiences of women in contemporary Nigeria It follows the adolescent plans and dreams of Li as she struggles for independence against the traditional values of her family home marriage and the lure of the city and all it can offer Childhood in African Literature Eldred Durosimi

Jones, Marjorie Jones, 1998 The experience of childhood as examined in the works of African writers Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature

Writing African Women Stephanie Newell, 2017-06-15 How does our understanding of Africa shift when we begin from the perspective of women What can the African perspective offer theories of culture and of gender difference This work as unique and insightful today as when it was first published brings together a wide variety of African academics and other researchers to explore the links between literature popular culture and theories of gender Beginning with a ground breaking overview of African gender theory the book goes on to analyse women's writing uncovering the ways different writers have approached issues of female creativity and colonial history as well as the ways in which they have subverted popular stereotypes around African women The contributors also explore the related gender dynamics of mask performance and oral story telling This major analysis of gender in popular and postcolonial cultural production remains essential reading for students and academics in women's studies cultural studies and literature Writers from Africa Stewart Brown, 1989

Journal Ouest-africain de Langue, de Littérature Et de Critique, 1999 Poetic Imagination in Black Africa Tanure Ojaide, 1996 In this book Tanure Ojaide explains the uniqueness of modern African poetry which he sees as a product of African orature and the Western literary tradition The volume fittingly begins with African Literature and Cultural Identity which establishes areas of cultural identity of modern African literature in general The next chapter strives to define modern African poetic aesthetics The book then examines both the oral and the rhythmic aspects of modern African poetry Having established the defining characteristics of modern African poetry Ojaide takes on the history of the art form The Changing Voice of History Contemporary African Poetry and New Trends in Modern African Poetry contrast the newer poetry to that of the older generation while acknowledging the influence of the old on the new The book then goes on to highlight African women's poetry and compare African American poetry with modern African poetry After the author himself a poet talks about his background and generation the collection concludes with Poetic Imagination in Black Africa Ojaide brings the intuitive knowledge of a practitioner and scholar to his literary criticism of poetry examining and interpreting modern African poems with lucidity passion and freshness His knowledge of American and English literatures allows him to make apt comparisons and bring out the uniqueness of modern African poetry Touching on the themes techniques and other areas Poetic Imagination in Black Africa will help readers achieve a deeper understanding of the complex and diverse world of modern African poetry

Childhood in African Literature Eldred D. Jones, Marjorie Jones, 1998 African authors have consistently returned to childhood to find their personal as well as their racial roots Far from being merely nostalgic yearnings for a lost paradise many of the treatments of childhood as shown in articles in this issue have exposed a grim reality of cruelty harshness parental particularly paternal egocentrism and extraordinary bruising of the vulnerable child psyche Camara Laye may have portrayed a paradise state but Yvonne Vera has treated one of the cruelest features of childhood anywhere African authors generally have been sternly responsible in their portrayal of childhood Publisher's description Africa Events, 1985 West Africa Jim Hudgens, Richard Trillo, 1990 Daughters of Africa Margaret Busby, 1993 Currents in African Literature and the English Language, 2018-05 African Women Writing Resistance Jennifer Browdy de Hernandez, Pauline Dongala, Omotayo Jolaosho, 2010-08-19 African Women Writing Resistance is the first transnational anthology to focus on women's strategies of resistance to the challenges they face in Africa today The anthology brings together personal narratives testimony interviews short stories poetry performance scripts folktales and lyrics Thematically organized it presents women's writing on such issues as intertribal and interethnic conflicts the degradation of the environment polygamy domestic abuse the controversial traditional practice of female genital cutting Sharia law intergenerational tensions and emigration and exile Contributors include internationally recognized authors and activists such as Wangari Maathai and Nawal El Saadawi as well as a host of vibrant new voices from all over the African continent and from the African diaspora Interdisciplinary in scope this collection provides an excellent introduction to contemporary African women's literature and highlights social issues that are particular to Africa but are also of worldwide concern It is an essential reference for students of African studies world literature anthropology cultural studies postcolonial studies and women's studies A Choice Outstanding Academic Book Outstanding Book selected by the Public Library Association Best Books for High Schools Best Books for Special Interests and Best Books for Professional Use selected by the American Association of School Libraries A Journal of Nigerian Languages and Culture, 2004 The Pressures of the Text Stewart Brown, University of Birmingham.
