Lafarge, 2015-09-27 Excerpt from Great Masters These essays were written a year ago for the pages of McClure's In the magazine they were of necessity very much cut down for most practical reasons of space and for the insertion of engravings But as their ideal was that of condensed notices they may not have suffered much in their earlier abridged form What form

they have is the result of a desire to write for a large public which public needs the ordinary biographical statements regarding illustrious lives and also of a wish so to write that those who had given time and thought to the works of these artists should feel that they were expressly addressed in short that an artist might be interested in these expositions of the lives and doings of certain other artists and find therein some freshness of view while at the same time any reader might have his memories established by the story and his interest increased in the works of art described or referred to For these purposes I have followed the simplest of all plans the record of the working life of each artist which explains his genius and which keeps us within the salutary consideration of the outside limits that define it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
