The Comic Book Heroes Will Jacobs, Gerard Jones, 1985 The first history of modern costumed hero comic books from the start of the Silver Age in 1956 up to today. Focusing on DC and Marvel Comics the story begins with the efforts of DC to revitalize such Golden Age heroes as the Flash, Superman and Green Lantern in the wake of the anti-comic furor of the early 1950s. The authors cover the science-fiction rage of the late 1950s, the birth of the experimental Marvel Comics Group in 1961, the emergence of such classic Marvel characters as the Fantastic Four and Spider-Man, the camp craze set off by the Batman TV show in 1966 and the socially conscious and politically relevant comics of the early 1970s. Later chapters describe the slump of the mid 1970s as the medium lost touch with its young readers, followed by the comics resurgence of the 1980s as many new companies help DC and Marvel to extend the boundaries of the field with innovation, daring and a new sophistication. Factually thorough and written in a lively narrative style, this history includes behind-the-scenes glimpses at the men who wrote, drew and published the comics, the impact of their creations on the fans and critical assessments of the works themselves. Illustrated throughout with examples of comic book art, The Comic Book Heroes will inform and entertain both the hardcore fan and the casual reader of this most popular of American mediums.     Popular Tales Maria
