A 44-year-old "outsider" was named Superintendent of Schools of New York City yesterday.
He is Dr. Calvin E. Green, who has been Superintendent in Pittsburgh for the last four years. Although little known in educational circles until he moved to Pittsburgh, he has gained recognition in recent years as one of the nation's ablest school administrators.

Dr. Green, who will succeed Dr. John J. Theobald, who is retiring after four years to enter private industry.

Dr. Green will receive an annual salary of $40,000, which is $3,000 more than he now earns. Dr. Theobald last received $37,000.

Castro Is Defiant; Bars Arms Checks

By the Associated Press
HAVANA, Oct. 23—President Fidel Castro said tonight that the United States blockade of Cuba was the act of a pirate and demanded that anyone who tried to carry out an arms inspection in Cuba "had better come ready for combat."

The Cuban leader repeated President Kennedy's charges that the Soviet-supported military buildup in Cuba was a threat to the Western Hemisphere. And he noted not only attempts by an international commission to investigate Dr. Kennedy's charges of Soviet missile bases in Cuba.

"Our arms are defensive," he said in a television broadcast speech, but even police operations were getting into a new footing yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—The American maritime community authorized today "the use of armed force" to carry out the quarantine of Cuba.

By a vote of 19 to 0, with 1 abstention—the greatest display of Western Hemisphere solidarity since the days of World War II—Latin American states voted to join the United States in recommending all necessary measures to halt the flow of offensive weapons to Cuba from the Soviet bloc.

Only Congress abstained in the vote on a United States-sponsored resolution in the Council of the Organization of American States. The Council earlier in the day granted Soviet emergency powers as a nonaligned, non-signatory of the 1947 Inter-American Treaty of Reciprocity Information.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—United States police forces have spotted 25 Soviet merchant ships on the way to Cuba, their course challenged in the last 24 hours.

Secretary of Defense Robert A. McNamara announced this at a news conference tonight. He said that he had sent orders to the Navy to "interdict" these and other vessels headed for Cuba tomorrow.

The Secretary also announced that he had ordered the Navy to stop all Navy and Marine Corps personnel and civilian ships.

He said that he ordered the Navy, based on reports after President Kennedy's presentation of a guarantee, at 7 P.M., authorized instructions to stop if necessary any vessels that refused to comply with the terms of the quarantine.

Conditions Imposed
The conditions on the Secretary said, that ships must either turn away from Cuban ports, submit to search and in-

"Acquisition radar" is of long-range type. Similar photographs were later released by the Defense Department in Washington.

Moscow, Oct. 23—The Soviet Union challenged today the right of the United States to impose a quarantine on the shipment of weapons of any type to Cuba. It asserted that the Cuban regime could make what ever defense arrangements it pleased.

Warning the Kennedy administration that its naval operations risked nuclear conflict was, Moscow asserted, that the armed forces of the Soviet Union were taking such measures to enhance their combat readiness.

The Defense Ministry was ordered to cancel all forms of military personnel and to order the discharge of armed air groups in the strategic sector and withdrawal forces and in reconnaissance units.

General Secretary Nikita Khrushchev also announced that Marshal Andrei A. Grechko,
