Gorbachev's Retreat Melvin A. Goodman,1991-06-30 In this fascinating inquiry into the Soviet retreat from the Third World Melvin A Goodman analyzes Gorbachev s policy from the standpoint of disillusionment with the Third World He cites among other reasons for the retreat the diminished strategic significance of the Third World to current Soviet leadership the limitations for Soviet power projection in distant areas and the dilemmas in Moscow s relations with Third World regimes Goodman contends that Gorbachev s foreign policy shift to achieve a more stable international arena and a less militant Soviet stance allowed Moscow to focus on its internal economic problems This volume provides the first exploration of Afghanistan as a watershed in Soviet thinking on the Third World and discusses the current Soviet emphasis on conflict management and resolution in Third World states particularly Afghanistan Angola Ethiopia and Nicaragua Gorbachev s Retreat explains how cooperation with the United States improves Moscow s image in the West and tends to stabilize Third World flash points Up to the minute data on Soviet military and economic assistance to the Third World as well as Third World responses to the new Soviet policy are also presented The volume examines Soviet retrenchment and retreat in the Third World analyzes Gorbachev s decisions relative to Third World relationships zeroes in on the withdrawal from Afghanistan explores some of the reasons for Soviet power limitations and assesses the regional implications of Gorbachev s New Political Thinking Gorbachev s Retreat then looks at Soviet power projection and crisis management Soviet military and economic aid and Soviet retreat in the 1990s The volume will be particularly useful to undergraduate and graduate courses in foreign policy and international relations as a discussion of the impact of the new Soviet policy in the Third World and the consequences for U S Soviet relations Regional studies specialists will find its in depth analyses of the limits on Soviet actions in the Third World cogent and timely The Soviet Union in World Politics Klaus von Beyme,1987 En omfattende systematisk studie af Sovjets udenrigspolitik d kkende politiske konomiske kulturelle og milit re relationer set i et historisk perspektiv Problems of Post-communism ,1994 The Soviet Union and the Emerging Nations Harish Kapur,Graduate Institute of International Studies (Geneva, Switzerland),1972 Case study of the USSR s foreign policy towards India to illustrate aspects of soviet policy and the evolution of international relations with developing countries covers historical aspects the role of USA the role of China economic relations incl In respect of trade and development aid soviet neutrality in the indo Pakistan conflict etc Bibliography pp 114 to 120 and references Yearbook on International Communist Affairs ,1975 Coping with Conflict After the Cold War Edward A. Kolodziej,Roger E. Kanet,1996 This volume provides answers to the question of how the international community might cope with armed conflict after the Cold War. It identifies key actors states and international organizations that have the resources and potentially the will to address the problems of continuing violence and enduring conflicts. The book also evaluates the roles and strategies that might be adopted by these actors unilaterally or cooperatively to ease or end such armed struggles. The authors review the role of the United States, Russia, Japan and China, all of which have the potential to play constructive roles in resolving conflicts. They also explore the contributions that the United Nations, the European Community and other transnational organizations can make to building a more peaceful and secure world. Instead of appealing to grand theory as a guide for coping, the authors conclude different mixes of actors, resources, roles and strategies will have to be fashioned to meet the special needs of each conflict. Coping is viewed as an international imperative and not as the responsibility or prerogative of any one actor. The volume will be of interest to anyone concerned with international relations, international organizations and security issues. Contributors are Arthur J. Alexander, Mohammed Ayoob, Nicole Ball, Paul F. Diehl, Roger E. Kanet, Samuel S. Kim, Edward A. Kolodziej, Edward J. Laurence, David F. Linowes, Patrick M. Morgan, Jack Snyder, Janice Gross Stein and I. William Zartman.
