Sow The Wind Contemporary Speeches:

The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism Zachary Levenson,Marcel Paret,2024-06-28 This book documents the emergence and development of the theory of racial capitalism in apartheid South Africa It interrogates the specificity of this theory in the South African context and draws lessons for its global applicability The volume was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Sow the Wind Neville Alexander,1985

Hierarchies at Work Karen

Engle,Neville Hoad,2025-06-10 This book challenges dominant understandings of both economic inequality and the future of work Leading scholars in law social sciences and the humanities consider the production and reproduction of global hierarchies by revisiting and deploying three critical approaches that emerged in the late twentieth century racial capitalism world systems theory and critical legal distributional analysis They demonstrate that these methods especially when brought together offer new insights into the forces that entrench the asymmetries of power and wealth that are too often shorthanded as inequality They also uncover elisions and erasures of the past and present in prevailing technological determinist narratives about the future of work Hierarchies at Work features powerful grounded studies of the dynamics of work and livelihood in sites ranging from garment factories in Jordan and palm oil fields in Colombia to dairy farms in the United States These studies underscore the necessity of thinking about the future of work and livelihoods through their racialized past and present and recognizing the systemic role of law in unequal distribution Highlighting alternative imaginaries that contest systems of domination and subordination this timely book offers resources to spur more just futures across local and global levels

Pluralizing Humanism Slavica Jakelić,2025-02-28 Humanism is appealed to today whenever we want to tackle the conditions of dehumanization in the contemporary world But for humanism to be viable in the twenty first century this book argues it needs to be pluralized Employing theoretical historical and sociological arguments this book moves beyond the discourse of critique It engages theories of religion and secularism as well as postmodern postcolonial and decolonial critiques of Western humanist projects to uncover the ideas and practices of religious and secular humanisms when they challenge dehumanization in the pursuit of conditions of flourishing for all Through studies of the Solidarity movement in Poland and the anti apartheid movement in South Africa the book demonstrates the centrality of humanist traditions to the emergence of religious secular solidarities that transformed the political landscapes of the world By highlighting the instances in which humanisms functioned as checks on each other s absolutist claims the book contends that humanisms supply a constructive path for addressing the challenges of our time a time of radically divided societies and intolerant even violent forms of nationalism A challenge to the critiques of humanism that seek to identify it solely as the legacy of the West as anti religious discourse or relegate it to the domain of power constellations Pluralizing Humanism highlights the rich plurality of humanist discourses and the need for their mutual engagements It points to humanist ideals as constitutive of politics that can guide our human power because they are irreducible to it As such this book will appeal to social scientists social theorists religious studies scholars and ethicists with interests in religion secularism social movements and humanist thought and practice Why Race Matters in South Africa Michael MacDonald,2006 This book tells the story of how the transition to democracy in South Africa enfranchised blacks politically but without raising most of them from poverty Although democratic South Africa is officially non racial the book shows that racial solidarities continue to play a role in the country s political economy

Biko Lives! A. Mngxitama,A. Alexander,N. Gibson,2008-07-07 This collection looks at the on going significance of Black Consciousness situating it in a global frame examining the legacy of Steve Biko the current state of post apartheid South African politics and the culture and history of the anti apartheid movements Race, Ethnicity And Nation Peter Ratcliffe,2005-08-17 An international and comparative analysis of social division rooted in race ethnicity and national identity It provides an overview of the key issues underlying ethnic conflict which has now risen to the top of the international political agenda

Reconfiguring Racial Capitalism Mingwei Huang,2024-10-18 In Reconfiguring Racial Capitalism Mingwei Huang traces the development of new forms of racial capitalism in the twenty first century Through fieldwork in one of the China malls that has emerged along Johannesburg s former mining belt Huang identifies everyday relations of power and difference between Chinese entrepreneurs and African migrant workers in these wholesale shops These relations Huang contends replicate and perpetuate global structures of white supremacy anti Blackness capitalism and colonialism even when whiteness is not present Huang argues that this dynamic reflects the sedimented legacies and continued operation of white supremacy and colonialism which have been transformed in the shift of capitalism s center of gravity toward China and the Global South These new forms of racial capitalism and empire layer onto and extend histories of exploitation and racialization in South Africa Taking a palimpsestic approach Huang offers tools for understanding this shift and decentering contemporary Western conceptions of race empire and racial capitalism in the Chinese Century

A Future South Africa Peter L. Berger,2019-08-22 This book identifies the key actors whose visions and strategies are crucial to the pattern which change will take in South Africa These actors their visions and strategic logic were subjected to a critique by their researchers in the light of contemporary South African realities

South Africa Under Apartheid Jacqueline Audrey Kalley,1987 As apartheid s crisis has deepened so interest in South Africa s past present and future has increased With this scholarly and popular writing on the country has proliferated This 1100 entry Bibliography guides the scholar or interested layman through the relevant literature on South Africa and the policy of apartheid Its cumulative impact is to show how racial domination permeates all aspects of modern South African society Brief informative annotations facilitate choice and the extensive Subject and Author Indexes provide quick access
