Michelle Waitzman, 2016-01-12 Author and educator Michelle Waitzman first visited New Zealand in 1998 and she's been hooked ever since Now a New Zealand citizen Waitzman outlines all the information you need to manage your move abroad in a smart organized and straightforward manner in Moon Living Abroad New Zealand She offers straightforward tips and advice on how businesspeople students teachers retirees and professionals can make a smooth transition to living in a new culture and country Moon Living Abroad New Zealand is packed with essential information and must-have details on setting up daily life including obtaining visas arranging finances gaining employment choosing schools and finding health care plus practical advice on how to rent or buy a home for a variety of needs and budgets With extensive color and black and white photos illustrations and maps Moon Living Abroad New Zealand will help you find your bearings as you settle into your new home and life abroad Interwar Gavin Stamp, 2024-03-07 A FINANCIAL TIMES BOOK OF THE YEAR 2024 A Country Life Architecture Book to Read in 2025 Elegant erudite and entertaining a superbly detailed picture of an architectural era The Times A magnificent monument in itself to a fine architectural writer Simon Heffer Telegraph British architecture between the wars is most famous for the rise of modernism the flat roofs clean lines and concrete of the Isokon flats in Hampstead and the Penguin Pool at London Zoo but the reality was far more diverse As the modernists came of age and the traditionalists began to decline there arose a rich variety of styles and tastes in Britain and across the empire a variety that reflected the restless zeitgeist of the years before the Second World War At the time of his death in 2017 Gavin Stamp one of Britain's leading architectural critics was at work on a deeply considered account of British architecture in the interwar period correcting what he saw as the skewed view of earlier historians who were unable to see past modernism Beginning with a survey of the modern movement after the armistice Interwar untangles the threads that link lesser-known movements like the Egyptian revival with the enduring popularity of the Tudorbethan to chronicle one of Britain's most dynamic architectural periods The result is more than an architectural history it is the portrait of a changing nation As an account of the period that still shapes much of Britain s towns and cities Gavin Stamp s final work is the definitive history of British architecture between the Great War and the Blitz International Books in Print ,1986 New Zealand ,2008 Zion's Herald ,1900
