The Inner Life Of Objects:

The Inner Life of Objects Maxine Gauthier Combs,2000 A look at the search for meaning and the bizarre ways in which lives and objects are interconnected The Inner Life Hazrat Inayat Khan,1997-02-11 The Indian Sufi master Hazrat Inayat Khan 1882 1927 was the first teacher to bring Sufism Islamic mysticism to the Western world His teaching was noted for its stirring beauty and power as well as for its applicability to all people regardless of religious or philosophical background This book gathers together three of Inayat Khan s most beloved essays on the spiritual life from among the fourteen volumes of his collected works The Inner Life Inayat Kahn s sublime portrait of the person whose life is a radiant reflection of the Divine Sufi Mysticism in which the author identifies and shatters the common misconceptions about mysticism to reveal its true meaning The Path of Initiation and Discipleship What it means to set out on the spiritual path and how to find and maintain the right relationship with a teacher The Present Age and Inner Life Andrew Jackson

Edwin Culver,1873 Art of Living, Art of Dying Carlo Leget,2017-03-21 Talking about dying and death can be difficult for those facing the end of life This book presents a model and offers examples for discussing existential questions with patients receiving end of life care Updating the Ars Moriendi tradition this book offers a non judgemental approach for supporting people through the spiritual aspects of dying Proceedings of the International Congress of Education of the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, July 25-28, 1893 International Congress of Education, 1895 Francis of Assisi as Artist of the Spiritual Life Andrew T. McCarthy, 2010-08-13 Francis of Assisi as Artist of the Spiritual Life applies modern psychological understanding to a historical person. While most such studies have sought a comprehensive personality profile, this work focuses on one aspect: Francis' imagination and seeks greater insight into the imaginatively inspired spiritual vision of St. Francis. An analysis of Francis' writings builds on a survey of modern views of the imagination and the approach of ORT or Object Relations Theory. ORT with its contention that the imaginative creation of an infant's world develops out of the earliest interactions with the maternal caregiver highlights the way Francis formed his way of visualizing the reality around him. While any study of a person 800 years in the grave is more dependent on what is plausible than on what is determinable, this study finds numerous examples where Francis' writings display an adept use of imagination and even encourages others in that use in a manner that corresponds to an ORT perspective on tutoring the imagination.

The Journal of Proceedings and Addresses of the National Educational Association National Educational Association (U.S.), 1894 The Expressive Body in Life, Art, and Therapy Daria Halprin, 2003 Drawing on her extensive experience in expressive arts therapy, Daria Halprin presents a unique approach to healing through movement and art. She describes the body as the container of one's entire life experience and movement as a language that expresses and reveals our deepest struggles and creative potentials. Interweaving artistic and psychological processes, she offers a philosophy and methodology that invites the reader to consider the transformational capacity of the arts. In this essential resource for anyone interested in the integration of psychotherapy and the arts, Halprin also presents case studies and a selection of exercises that she has evolved over her career and practised at the Tamalpa Institute for over twenty-five years.

Froebel Friedrich Fröbel, 1896 Art - Ethics - Education, 2020-08-03 This book can be viewed as a series of investigations into the ongoing imbrications of the practices of art, ethics, and education as conducted within each author's specific context of practice as artist, educator, researcher. It constitutes an international anthology of explorations that are by no means exclusive but conscious of the ongoing iterations, mutations, and individuations of relations between art, ethics, and education, which in turn seek to expand how we might conceive these terms as practices. This ongoing evolution reminds us that as practices, art, ethics, and education are always incomplete processes, affected by and affecting their specific milieus and environments. Chapters within the book cover a wide range of ethical questions and educational contexts, broaching subjects as varied as higher education, artificial intelligence, animal ethics, transcultural encounters, collaborative art, the education of senior citizens, and experiences of conflict. Art, ethics, and education are not conceived in terms of established orders, representations, ideals, criteria, or bodies of knowledge and practice, but rather in terms of dynamic relational processes and their potentialities that arise within specific locations cartographies and ecologies of practice The notions of art ethics and education are viewed in terms of assemblages that have the capacity to generate new modes of practice that may question established values and advance new overlappings of aesthetic ethical and political relations Contributors are Dennis Atkinson Hashim Al Azzam John Baldacchino Bazon Brock Carl Peter Buschhle Sahin Celikten Ana Dimke Brian Grassom Leena Hannula Brian Hughes Jan Jagodzinski Timo Jokela Mira Kallio Tavin Joachim Kettel Guillermo Marini Catarina Martins Joe Sacco Francisco Schwember Juuso Tervo Raphael Vella and Branka Vujanovic *Lectures on literature and art, delivered in the ...
