Soviet Politics Home Abroad:

East-west Conflict Michael D. Intriligator, 2019-04-09 This book aims to bring together American and West German scholars in order to analyze U S German and Soviet elite perceptions of East West conflict It attempts to assess the policy implications and political options for the West Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. new theory of a synthetic vernacular writing that explores the aesthetic and ideological tensions within modernism's dual commitments to the local and the global. The result is an invigorating contribution to the field of transnational modernist studies. Chapters focus on a mixture of canonical and non canonical writers combining new literary histories such as the story of how Melvin B Tolson while a resident of Oklahoma was appointed Poet Laureate of Liberia with analyses of poems by Gertrude Stein, W H Auden, Ezra Pound and T S Eliot. More broadly the book reveals how the language of modernist poetry was shaped by the incompletely globalized nature of a world in which the nation state continued to be a primary mediator of cultural and political identity even as its authority was challenged as never before. Through deft juxtaposition Hart develops a new interpretation of modernist poetry in English one that disrupts the critical opposition between nationalism and the transnational paving the way for a political history of modernist cosmopolitanism. International Affairs, 1977. Building Democracy in the Yugoslav Successor States Sabrina P. Ramet, Christine M. Hassenstab, Ola Listhaug, 2017-05-15. Building democracy in societies that have known only authoritarian rule for half a century is complicated. Taking the post Yugoslav region as its case study this volume shows how success with democratisation depends on various factors including establishing the rule of law, the consolidation of free media and society's acceptance of ethnic, religious and sexual minorities. Surveying the seven successor states the authors argue that Slovenia is in a class by itself as the most successful, with Croatia and Serbia not far behind. The other states, Bosnia Herzegovina, Macedonia, Montenegro and Kosovo are all struggling with problems of corruption, poverty and unemployment. The authors treat the issue of values as a policy problem in its own right, debating the extent to which values have been transformed by changes in education and the media, how churches and women's organisations have entered into the policy debate and whether governments have embraced a programme designed to effect changes in values. The New Russian Foreign Policy Michael Mandelbaum, 1998. This book surveys Russia's relations with the world since 1992 and assesses the future prospect for the foreign policy of Europe's largest country. Together these essays offer an authoritative summary and assessment of Russia's relations with its neighbors and with the rest of the world since the collapse of the Soviet Union. International Political Economy Thomas D. Lairson, David Skidmore, 1997. INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY focuses on conflicts and collaborations that occur between nations as each pursues power and wealth through international economic exchange. The authors provide a historical overview of the development of the world economy from 1815 to the present, helping students understand how and why major economic powers rise and fall. This balanced blend of history, theory and policy makes the book suitable as a main text for International Political Economy courses or as a supplemental text for an Introductory International Relations course. The Annals of Our Time Joseph Irving, 1871.
