Short Fiction By Hispanic Writers of the United States Nicolás Kanellos, 1993-01-01 Short Fiction by Hispanic Writers of the United States includes representative works by the most celebrated Cuban American Mexican American and Puerto Rican writers of short fiction in the country. The texts cover a full range of expression themes and styles of US Hispanics and are introduced by informative entries which place the authors in their cultural and historic frameworks. In these pages the reader will not find picturesque folksy or touristy renditions of Hispanic culture. Instead Short Fiction by Hispanic Writers of the United States brings together works that are clear, incisive and authentic representations of Hispanic life in the United States. The selections are as diverse as Hispanic culture itself and as varied as the personalities of their authors. Here are Max Martínez's courageous challenge of racial and social structures, Roberta Fernández's construction of Hispanic women's aesthetics, Roberto Fernández's subversion of the English language, Nicholasa Mohr's humorous attack on patriarchy and Judith Ortiz Cofer's poetic evocation of childhood and biculturalism. This collection engages in aesthetic and cultural experience that will result in a redefined canon and a new identity for the country as a whole. They are re-focusing our perception of ourselves as a people and a culture. The pressure and the commitment to do so of course make for excellence and innovation in literary expression. It also makes for enjoyable reading.
