Miracles and Machines Elizabeth King,W. David Todd,2023-08-15 An abundantly illustrated narrative that draws from the history of art science technology artificial intelligence psychology religion and conservation in telling the extraordinary story of a Renaissance robot that prays This volume tells the singular story of an uncanny rare object at the cusp of art and science a 450 year old automaton known as the monk The walking gesticulating figure of a friar in the collection of the Smithsonian Institution s National Museum of American History is among the earliest extant ancestors of the self propelled robot According to legend connected to the court of Philip II of Spain the monk represents a portrait of Diego de Alcal a humble Franciscan lay brother whose holy corpse was said to be agent to the miraculous cure of Spain s crown prince as he lay dying in 1562 In tracking the origins of the monk and its legend the authors visited archives libraries and museums across the United States and Europe probing the paradox of a mechanical object performing an apparently spiritual act They identified seven kindred automata from the same period which they argue form a paradigmatic class of walking prime movers unprecedented in their combination of visual and functional realism While most of the literature on automata focuses on the Enlightenment this enthralling narrative journeys back to the late Renaissance when clockwork machinery was entirely new foretelling the evolution of artificial life to come

Spanish Artists from the Fourth to the Twentieth Century, 1993 Finding Caspicara Susan Verdi Webster, 2024

Caspicara was the most renowned sculptor of the eighteenth century Andean world Yet many works that are attributed to this Indigenous artist cannot be firmly documented as he is nearly absent in traditional archival records Susan Webster seeks to analyze not only the visual imagery and material culture of his many works but she also seeks to lay the foundation for understanding how scholars can revive the life and records of artists and other historical figures many of whom were Indigenous in this period with different methodologies By cultivating artistic theory popular religious devotion and specific styles of sculpture Webster's examination of the labor and workshop practices of this period contextualize the extensive commercial networks that existed within Quito and emanated beyond it Webster explores the reason why authors constructed an almost completely fictional life story and canon for this artist that continued for two centuries how this story fueled the agendas and goals of these authors in melding the colonial past with a newly independent country that could measure itself against western European culture and as a potent story for tourists She then considers the ways in which Caspicara's work was at the center of debates of sculpture versus painting in Quito These debates and their development in the city also add context to notions of authorship and how it was documented or not By exploring the professional world where he worked Webster's analysis of Indigenous sculptors and their family networks of labor and apprenticeship in the arts allow us to understand the changing workforce and materials for sculptures This analysis also reveals what day to day life may have been for Caspicara and how this routine informed the artistic choices available to him Archival materials indirectly offer glimpses into how patrons regarded Caspicara and his work and how the work of others later embellished or altered his original vision Throughout the chapters visibility materials and reception challenge the typical obsession of art historians museum curators and auction houses in their hunger to attribute authorship in ways that increase the value both for prestige and monetary reasons and in ways that end up obscuring authorship and intent Spanish Sculpture Victoria and Albert Museum, Marjorie Trusted, 1996 The collection comprises a number of outstanding pieces from the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries many of which were previously unpublished Jacket Spanish New Mexico: The arts of Spanish New Mexico Spanish Colonial Arts Society, 1996 Spanish Artists from the Fourth to the Twentieth Century: General bibliography and indexes Frick Art Reference Library, 1993 The Body of Christ in the Art of Europe and New Spain, 1150-1800 James Clifton, David Nirenberg, Linda Elaine Neagley, 1997 The Body of Christ is divided into four thematic sections The Word Made Flesh includes images of the Madonna and Child the Annunciation Nativity and Adoration Suffering
