The Ever Rolling Stream:

Time, Like an Ever-Rolling Stream Judith Moffett, 2015-05-29 Judith Moffett returns to the future with this moving tale of the Hefn occupation of Earth and how it affects the planet's native humans two in particular Pam Pruitt a talented young woman from Kentucky and Liam O'Hara whose unique friendship with the Hefn Humphrey saved his life The two teens journey to a special place in remote Kentucky Hurt Hollow where the painter Orrin Hubbell and his wife Hannah found a way to live in peace with the planet during the twentieth century The prospects of living peacefully seem distant for Pam and Liam both of whom must find peace with themselves as well as with the Hefn Directive The marvelous events that befall them en route to Kentucky and in the Hollow itself beautifully depict the subtle ways in which the world shapes them and the stunning ways in which they change the world The Eloquence of Grace James M. Childs, Richard A. Lischer, 2012-10-12 Joseph A Sittler 1904-1987 was one of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century distinguished for his pioneering work in ecology and for his preeminence as a preacher He gave both the Beecher Lectures at Yale and the Noble Lectures at Harvard As the preacher's theologian Sittler approached the interpretation of Scripture with a clear understanding of current critical scholarship but also in the freedom of the gospel at the center of Scripture and with the humility of a theologian of the cross In following the trajectory of the text into the preaching situation he gave a lively timeless and eloquent expression to the fact that the interpretation of texts is in the service of proclamation This collection of readings from Sittler's rich legacy contains a great many presentations and sermons that have never before appeared in print Theologically serious preaching close attention to language engagement with the best of sacred and secular culture and a deep respect for the text all characteristics of Sittler's work are the sort of features that continue to edify They remain as benchmarks for good preaching even as styles and contexts evolve The Argosy Mrs. Henry Wood, Charles William Wood, 1893 A magazine of tales travels essays and poems Shirley Charlotte Brontë, 1888 British Socialist Fiction, 1884-1914, Volume 3 Deborah Mutch, 2024-08-01 Socialism in late Victorian and Edwardian Britain was a highly literate movement Every socialist group produced some form of written text through which their particular brand of politics could be promoted This edition collects serialized fiction and short stories that have not been published since their original appearance The Trespasser Gilbert Parker, 1893 Lavengro George Borrow, 1888 Authorized Report of the Proceedings of the Church Congress Held at ... on ..., 1877 Carmina Sanctorum Roswell Dwight Hitchcock, Zachary Eddy, Lewis Ward Mudge, 1886 A Library of Poetry and Song William Cullen Bryant, 1874 Psalms and Hymns and Spiritual Songs Charles S. Christian view of God and vigorously promoting their own images of Divinity God Under Fire refutes the claim that major attributes of the God of historic Christianity are false and outdated This book responds to some increasingly popular alternate theologies and the ways in which they cast classical Christian theism in a negative light Featuring an impressive cast of world class biblical scholars philosophers and apologists God Under Fire begins by addressing the question Should the God of Historic Christianity Be Replaced From there it explores issues as old as time and as new as the inquest into the openness of God How for instance does God risk relate emot and change Does he do these things and if so why These and other questions are investigated with clarity bringing serious scholarship into popular reach Above all this collection of essays focuses on the nature of God as presented in the Scriptures and as Christians have believed for centuries God Under Fire builds a solid and appealing case for the God of classical Christian theism who in recent years as through the centuries has been the God under fire
