The Papers of General Nathanael Greene: Apr.-Sept. 1782 Nathanael Greene,1976 Washington Paul Vickery, 2023-12-19 His name is carved in granite his likeness cast in bronze his legend as large as the role he played as America's first president But before he was a commander in chief George Washington was a general in a revolution that would decide the future of the people and land he called his own If victorious he would gain immortality If defeated he would find his neck in a hangman's noose Washington knew the sting of defeat at Brandywine at Germantown yet this unwavering leadership and his vision for a new and independent nation emboldened an army prepared to fight barefoot if necessary to win that independence Wrote an officer after the Battle of Princeton I saw him brave all the dangers of the field and his important life hanging as it were by a single hair with a thousand deaths flying around him Among America's pantheon of Founding Fathers one man to this day stands out Author Paul Vickery tracks the unlikely rise of Washington a man whose stature in command of a young army became prelude to a presidency As Vickery writes He learned to become the father of our country by first being the father of our military The Papers of General Nathanael Greene Nathanael Greene,1976 Papers of General Nathanael Greene Volume XIII 22 May 1783 13 June 1786 with Additions to the Series The Papers of General Nathanael Greene: 1 January
