The Penguin Of Canadian Short Stories:

The Penguin Book of Canadian Short Stories Jane Urquhart, 2007 This stunning collection of 60 stories over a century's worth of the best Canadian literature by an extraordinary array of our finest writers has been selected and is introduced by award-winning writer Jane Urquhart. Urquhart's selection includes stories by major literary figures such as Mavis Gallant, Carol Shields, Alistair MacLeod, and Margaret Atwood, and wonderful stories by younger writers including Dennis Bock, Joseph Boyden, and Madeleine Thien. This collection is uniquely organized into five parts: the immigrant experience, urban life, family drama, fantasy, and metaphor, and celebrating the past. The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story Maria Löschnigg, 2022-12-30 This volume aims to introduce undergraduates, graduates, and general readers to the diversity and richness of Canadian short story writing and to the narrative potential of short fiction in general. Addressing a wide spectrum of forms and themes, the book will familiarise readers with the development and cultural significance of Canadian short fiction from the early 19th century to the present. A strong focus will be on the rich reservoir of short fiction produced in the past four decades and the way in which it has responded to the anxieties and crises of our time. Drawing on current critical debates, each chapter will highlight the interrelations between Canadian short fiction and historical and socio-cultural developments. Case studies will zoom in on specific thematic or aesthetic issues in an exemplary manner. The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story will provide an accessible and comprehensive overview, ideal for students and general readers interested in the multifaceted and thriving medium of the short story in Canada. The Oxford Book of Canadian Short Stories in English Margaret Atwood, Robert Weaver, 1986 Arranged chronologically with forty stories, in all the book provides an excellent survey of Canada's leading writers, including a story by Atwood herself, The Sin Eater, as well as stories by Morley Callaghan, Last Spring, They Came Over, Mordecai Richler, The Summer My Grandmother Was Supposed to Die, and Stephen Leacock, The Marine Excursion of the Knights of Pythias. Lecker shows that these anthologies are deeply conflicted narratives that embody the tensions and anxieties felt by their editors when faced with the challenge of constructing or rejecting national ideals. He argues that these are intensely self-conscious works with their own literary mechanisms and architecture. In reading the history of these anthologies, he witnesses a complex narrative of nation, a compelling story about the values and interests
