B.G. Thomas,2017-12-25 Ned Balding used to be a decent man until the stress of seemingly countless responsibilities changes him and he becomes cold and driven the kind of man who considers firing an employee days before Christmas The kind of man who kicks a dog But Ned's transgressions haven't gone unseen A Salvation Army Santa witnesses his misdeeds and decides Ned needs to be taught a lesson When Ned wakes up the next morning he's stunned to discover he's been transformed into a dog In the past year Jake Carrara has lost his mother a lover even his dog His boss came close to firing him just before the holidays He isn't sure he's ready for another pet when he's asked to foster a dog but Jake's good heart won't let him refuse Little does he know this isn't just any dog Through a twist of fate two people with little reason to be friends might teach each other to rediscover the good and the love in life
