The Parental Obligation A Study Of Parenthood Acrob Households:

LGBT-Parent Families Abbie E. Goldberg, Katherine R. Allen, 2012-10-12 LGBT Parent Families is the first handbook to provide a comprehensive examination of this underserved area. Reflecting the nature of this issue, the volume is notably interdisciplinary with contributions from scholars in psychology, sociology, human development, family studies, gender studies, sexuality studies, legal studies, social work, and anthropology. Additionally, scholarship from regions beyond the U.S., including England, Australia, Canada, and South Africa, is presented. In addition to gender and sexuality, all contributors address issues of social class, race, and ethnicity in their chapters.

Evidence-Informed Interventions for Court-Involved Families Lyn R. Greenberg, Barbara J. Fidler, Michael A. Saini, 2019-03-19 Children who experience parental divorce or trauma, particularly when these are accompanied by conflict, face increased risks to their health and adjustment. While many children adjust well, a sizeable number will experience long periods in which parents are in conflict or the family is involved with the courts. These children's needs may differ from other children, and quality early intervention is critical. With chapters by an acclaimed international group of authors, this book provides the go-to reference for understanding and providing appropriate services for these children and families, informed by the best available research and professional literature.

The household oracle, ed. by A.H. Miles Alfred Henry Miles, 1897 Acrophonology Linda Bender, Pepe Applegate, 2013 When we are born, each one of us is given a name, a name so unique and purposeful that each letter in it has certain vibrations and energies that correlate to the signs and planets of the zodiac. In her comprehensive guidebook, Linda Bender shares insight into an ancient science that explains the power and association of letters and words that allows others to unlock the secrets that lie hidden within a name, including who we are, why we are here, where we are going, and how we can get there. Bender, an astrologer and acrophonologist, relies on inclusive notes from fellow astrologer Pepe Applegate in order to offer practical tools that help students understand and analyze the vibrational qualities of a name and its relationship to the planets at the time of birth. After detailing the complex background of acrophonology, Bender provides step-by-step guidance on how to investigate the letters in a name and apply that knowledge to our own lives and personalities in order to create a happier existence. Acrophonology provides valuable information about unmistakable and repeated correlations between astrological factors in birth charts and letters in birth names that empowers anyone to heal from within and ultimately discover their true potential.

Research in Education, 1971 Psychological Insights for Understanding COVID-19 and Families, Parents, and Children Marc H. Bornstein, 2020-12-13 With specially commissioned introductions from international experts, the Psychological Insights for Understanding COVID-19 series draws together previously published chapters on key themes in psychological science that engage with people's unprecedented experience of the pandemic. This volume collects chapters that address prominent issues and challenges presented by the SARS-CoV-2 pandemic to families, parents, and children. A new introduction from Marc H. Bornstein reviews how disasters are known to impact families, parents, and children and explores traditional and novel responsibilities of parents and their effects on child growth and development It examines parenting at this time detailing consequences for home life and economies that the pandemic has triggered considers child discipline and abuse during the pandemic and makes recommendations that will support families in terms of multilevel interventions at family community and national and international levels The selected chapters elucidate key themes including children s worry stress and parenting positive parenting programs barriers which constrain population level impact of prevention programs and the importance of culturally adapting evidence based family intervention programs Featuring theory and research on key topics germane to the global pandemic the Psychological Insights for Understanding COVID 19 series offers thought provoking reading for professionals students academics policy makers and parents concerned with the psychological consequences of COVID 19 for individuals families and society The National Parent-teacher Magazine ,1935 Parent
