An Economic History of Imperial Madagascar, 1750-1895 Gwyn Campbell, 2005-03-14 The first comprehensive economic history of pre colonial Madagascar this study examines the island s role from 1750 to 1895 in the context of a burgeoning international economy and the rise of modern

European imperialism This study reveals that the Merina of the Central Highlands attempted to found an island empire and through the exploitation of its human and natural resources build the economic and military might to challenge British and French pretensions in the region Ultimately the Merina failed due to imperial forced labour policies and natural disasters the nefarious consequences of which disease depopulation ethnic enmity have in traditional histories been imputed external capitalist and French colonial policies The Comparative and International Law Journal of Southern Africa ,1978

Encyclopedia of African American History Leslie M. Alexander,Walter C. Rucker,2010-02-09 A fresh compilation of essays and entries based on the latest research this work documents African American culture and political activism from the slavery era through the 20th century Encyclopedia of African American History introduces readers to the significant people events sociopolitical movements and ideas that have shaped African American life from earliest contact between African peoples and Europeans through the late 20th century This encyclopedia places the African American experience in the context of the entire African diaspora with entries organized in sections on African European contact and enslavement culture resistance and identity during enslavement political activism from the Revolutionary War to Southern emancipation political activism from Reconstruction to the modern Civil Rights movement black nationalism and urbanization and Pan Africanism and contemporary black America Based on the latest scholarship and engagingly written there is no better go to reference for exploring the history of African Americans and their distinctive impact on American society politics business literature art food clothing music language and technology Jesus Christ as Ancestor Reuben Turbi Luka,2019-08-31 In this critical study Dr Turbi Luka uses historical theological methodology to engage in detail with Christologies of key African theologians and conventional theological sources for Christology including the church fathers Tertullian and Athanasius as well as modern theologians Turbi argues that existing African Christologies specifically ancestor Christologies are inadequate in expressing the person of Christ as Messiah and saviour the fulfilment of Old Testament prophecies Providing a new approach Turbi proposes an African Linguistic Affinity Christology that explicitly portrays Jesus as Christ in a contextually relevant way for Africans in everyday life This crucial study highlights the need for biblically rooted Christology and for sound theological understanding and naming of Jesus at every level This book also warns the church in Africa and elsewhere to avoid repeating the dangerous christological heresies of the ancient church by remaining faithful to a biblical interpretation and orthodox theology of Christ Water and Society Terje Tvedt,2015-12-22 Despite the central importance that water has held for civilizations both ancient and modern its social significance has made surprisingly little impact on our contemporary understanding of human history and development Dominant interpretations of the relationship between society and nature have remained water blind In Water and Society historian and leading water expert Terje Tvedt argues for a change that acknowledges the significant role played by water in societal development Reflecting his expertise as a geographer historian and a political scientist and drawing on his wide experience of water issues around the world Terje

Tvedt's Water and Society provides a long overdue reappraisal of the relationship between water and society one that gives water its rightful place as central to any true understanding of human history and development. Between the Jaws of Hyenas - A Diplomatic History of Ethiopia (1876-1896) Richard Caulk, 2002 With the publication of this book the definitive work on the diplomatic history of Ethiopia in the last quarter of the nineteenth century could be said to have seen the light of day. The book deals with a crucial period when the destiny of Ethiopia hangs in the balance. The question as indeed it was the case for the rest of Africa was whether the country was to remain independent or become colonized. Menilek combining diplomatic and military initiatives not only ensured that Ethiopia remained independent but also expanded its territory to unprecedented limits. The book is based on a critical reading of the secondary literature as well as an exhaustive and analytical use of all the pertinent archival sources the memoirs and biographies of the principal European characters and Ethiopian chronicles biographies and other primary sources. It can serve as the standard text for teaching courses on Ethiopia and the Horn at the university level. At the same time it provides a useful background to those interested in the formation of the modern Ethiopian state as well as its troubled relations with what eventually became Eritrea. The Atlas of African-American History and Politics: From the Slave Trade to Modern Times Arwin D Smallwood, Jeffrey M Elliot, 1998 THE ATLAS OF AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY AND POLITICS consists of more than 150 originally produced maps which trace the African experience throughout the world and in America. The volume traces the complete history of African Americans and their lives employing artfully conceived maps and enhanced by sharply written historic narratives graphically reinforcing the facts. This work is appropriate for courses in African American history and American history where instructors would like to integrate African American history into their curricula. The Journal of East Asian Affairs ,1982 Monographic Materials Pertaining to Asia, South Asia, Southeast Asia, East Asia, Southwest Asia, Africa, and Latin America Held by the Guilford College Library Guilford College. Library, 1973 Indian Book Reporter ,1970 Peace and World Order Studies ,1981 Anatomy of an African Kingdom John W. Nyakatura, 1973 Political Geography B. L. Sukhwai, Lilawati Sukhwai, 1996 This reference work contains more than 15000 entries on political geography political science international studies social sciences military and strategic studies and ocean resources. The materials have been collected from more than 270 journals and periodicals current geographical publications the American Geographical Society Research Catalog and bibliographies of various political geography books. The available materials have been collected on political geography since 1945 while important materials from earlier periods have also been included. The book also includes theses and dissertations that enhance its usefulness. Luzac's Oriental List and Book Review ,1969
