The Perez Family:

The Perez Family Jesse Russell, Ronald Cohn, 2012-03 High Quality Content by WIKIPEDIA articles The Perez Family is a comedy film released in 1995 about a group of Cuban refugees in America who pretend to be a family. It starred Marisa Tomei, Alfred Molina, Anjelica Huston, Chazz Palminteri and other well-known actors. It was based on the 1991 novel The Perez Family ISBN 0 06 097401 X by Christine Bell. The film was directed by Mira Nair. Mayas in the Marketplace Walter E. Little, 2004-12-01 Selling handicrafts to tourists has brought the Maya peoples of Guatemala into the world market. Vendors from rural communities now offer their wares to more than 500 000 international tourists annually in the marketplaces of larger cities such as Antigua, Guatemala City, Panajachel and Chichicastenango. Like businesspeople anywhere, Maya artisans analyze the desires and needs of their customers and shape their products to meet the demands of the market. But how has adapting to the global marketplace reciprocally shaped the identity and cultural practices of the Maya peoples? Drawing on over a decade of fieldwork, Walter Little presents the first ethnographic study of Maya handicraft vendors in the international marketplace. Focusing on Kaqchikel Mayas who commute to Antigua to sell their goods, he explores three significant issues: how the tourist marketplace conflates global and local distinctions; how the marketplace becomes a border zone where national and international, developed and underdeveloped, and indigenous and non-indigenous come together; how marketing to tourists changes social roles, gender relationships and ethnic identity in the vendors' home communities. Little's wide-ranging research challenges our current understanding of tourism's negative impact on indigenous communities. He demonstrates that the Maya are maintaining a specific community-based sense of Maya identity even as they commodify their culture for tourist consumption in the world market.

The Films of Mira Nair Amardeep Singh, 2018-09-10 The Films of Mira Nair Diaspora Vrit presents the first full-length scholarly study of her cinema. Mira Nair has broken new ground as both a feminist filmmaker and an Indian filmmaker. Several of her works, especially those related to the South Asian diaspora, have been influential around the globe. Amardeep Singh delves into the complexities of Nair's films from 1981 to 2016, offering critical commentary on all of Nair's major works, including her early documentary projects as well as shorts. The subtitle, diaspora vrit, alludes to Singh's primary theme. Nair's filmmaking project is driven aesthetically by her background in the documentary realist tradition, cin ma vrit, and thematically by her interest in the lives of migrants and diasporic populations. Mainly, Nair's filmmaking intends to document imaginatively the experiences of diasporic communities. Nair's focus on the diasporic appears in the long list of her films that have explored the subject, such as Mississippi Masala, So Far from India, Monsoon Wedding, The Perez Family, My Own Country, The Namesake, and The Reluctant Fundamentalist. However, a version of the diasporic sensibility also emerges even in films with an apparently different scope, such as Nair's adaptation of Thackeray's Vanity Fair. Nair began her career as a documentary filmmaker in the early 1980s. While Nair now has largely moved away from the documentary format in favor of making fictional feature films, Singh shows that a documentary realist style remains active in her subsequent fictional cinema Mercy in Her Eyes John Kenneth Muir,2006 Applause Books This the first book to examine the films of the acclaimed and popular Indian born and Harvard educated filmmaker Mira Nair A unique voice in cinema today she is one of the few female directors who made it to the top of a male dominated profession Her films feature an incomparably sensuous visual style yet at the same time often record the injustice of the disenfranchised and the cross pollination of East and West Her twin themes of realism and romance make for dazzling cinema John Kenneth Muir analyzes all of Nair s work including Salaam Bombay 1988 the groundbreaking story of a young boy abandoned by his family on the streets of Bombay Mississippi Masala 1991 an interracial small town romance between an Indian woman Sarita Choudhury and an African American businessman Denzel Washington Monsoon Wedding 2001 featuring a Bollywood carnival atmosphere one of the most successful foreign films ever released in the United States Hysterical Blindness 2002 the HBO film featuring Uma Thurman and Juliette Lewis looking for love in all the wrong places The big budget Hollywood adaptation of the Thackery novel Vanity Fair 2004 starring Reese Witherspoon Gabriel Byrne and Eileen Atkins
