William Shakespeare

The Perfect Pal:

Clifford's Best Pals Norman Bridwell, 2010-05 Clifford and his canine friends decide to play at a construction site. Bad idea. Clifford and his friends get into trouble and learn that games are only fun when played in a safe place. Full color. Teaching in Troubled Times Kathy Paterson, 2010 This topical book begins with an appeal to teachers to remain positive in spite of what's happening outside the classroom and provides ideas to build confidence in addressing students' troubles. It offers valuable insights into dealing with any number of challenges from children's worries about the world to the parental tendency to overprotect to teachers' need to recharge in the midst of a stressful day. Practical and accessible, the book suggests simple ways of guiding honest and responsive discussion as well as liberating activities that encourage students to disengage from their fears. It addresses children's heavy exposure to violence and stereotypes especially through the media. It shows teachers how to explore major issues in the lives of their students in a healthy, positive way and how to encourage stronger, more aware, independent and successful learners. The Lignites of the Great Sioux Reservation Arnold Hague, Bailey Willis, Charles Abiathar White, George Ferdinand Becker, John Mason Clarke, Roland Duer Irving, Whitman Cross, Joseph Paxson Iddings, Thomas Chrowder Chamberlin, William Francis Hillebrand, 1886 Opportunity House Michael V. Angrosino, 1997-12-02 Calling on a decade of participant observation at a residence for mentally retarded adults, anthropologist Michael V. Angrosino's riveting and demystifying account offers an insider's picture of the lives of the inhabitants of Opportunity House. Using the narrative device of a dozen fictional short stories told in the voices of various community members as well as that of the researcher, Angrosino weaves a life histories approach to ethnography together with an innovative culture concept to tackle the complexities of representing marginalized subgroups. As opposed to traditional clinical or statistical studies which have insufficiently conveyed the subjective and experiential perspectives of retarded people themselves, Angrosino presents an intimate and complex picture of a highly functioning community with its cast of entrepreneurs, bullies, victims, and do-gooders. This wonderfully readable and captivating account is therefore an important resource for those interested in mental illness and disability as well as a model for those experimenting with forms of ethnographic writing.
