The Peace Movements In Europe The United States:

European Peace Movements and the Future of the Western Alliance Walter Laqueur, 2017-09-08 This extraordinary compendium concerns the future of the Western alliance and the development of the peace movements in Europe and in the United States The peace movement is an old phenomenon given new life by NATO decisions concerning nuclear deployment in Europe and the Soviet responses along the same lines After a long postwar marriage Europeans and Americans alike are reexamining the premises of the Western alliance The contributors provide a variety of scenarios extending from the maintenance of the status quo to the complete dismantling of the Western alliance or at least of its NATO component In a context of rapid change and new challenges to the democratic bloc the editors and authors argue for higher levels of economic integration and caution that competition might spill over into political collapse The work deals with thorny security issues in a frank and policy oriented way While each contributor expresses a unique standpoint a surprising consensus emerges The need for democratic nations to move toward a higher policy ground in order to preserve the fundamental alliance that led to the postwar consensus to begin with Some contributors feel this is still possible others that the time has passed and that national rather than regional interests will once more prevail The work contains an extraordinary array of talent from both the American and European perspectives Among the major contributors and their themes are Henry Kissinger on A Plan to Reshape NATO William G Hyland on The European Peace Movement and NATO Irving Kristol on What's Wrong with NATO Theodore Draper on The Western Misalliance Niels Haagerup on The Nordic Peace Movements Martin Ceadel on The British Nuclear Disarmers and Jeffrey Herf on The SPD and the Peace Movement in West Germany This is a well integrated text with no random essays

The Peace Movements in Europe and the United States Werner Kaltefleiter, Robert L. Pfaltzgraff, 2019-07-09 In the early 1980s the peace movements in most of the Western countries captured public attention as never before This largely resulted from NATO's decision in 1979 to deploy new medium range missiles in Europe in 1983 if negotiations with the Soviet Union to limit this type of weapon system failed The main purpose of the peace movements in Europe was to put pressure on their respective governments to accept Soviet proposals in negotiations and not to deploy new missiles Many large demonstrations and other happenings were organised for this purpose The Soviet and other Warsaw Pact countries accompanied and supported the activities of the peace movements by propaganda and disinformation campaigns The national peace movements despite their common aims had different historic backgrounds and characteristics This book originally published in 1985 presents an authoritative review of the peace movements in Sweden Denmark Norway the Netherlands Great Britain France Italy Germany and the United States The authors discuss not only the history and organisation of each peace movement but also their international cooperation media coverage and prospects for the future
