Chase-Riboud,2015-02-10 The long breath of Barbara Chase Riboud s poems recalls poets of the antique world we know only from fragments like Sappho And yet here is a disquieting and sumptuous contemporary voice that seems to gather up antiquity and modernity with equal fervor and scorn These poems are sexually charged possessed of a courtly disdain and a strange nobility that seems to well up from below to be self creating and unlike the verse of any other poet writing today Certainly one secret to this work is that Chase Riboud s poems are informed by her epic polished bronze sculptures as her sculptures are informed by her narrative fiction and her fiction by her poems The idea of the Renaissance Man is almost a clich but how often do we get to see what it means for an artist to be a Renaissance Woman Chase Riboud has been a major in sculpture fiction and poetry for close to half a century selling over a million copies of her path breaking novel Sally Hemings in the late 70s winning the Carl Sandburg Award for her second collection of poems in the late 80s and now nearly thirty years later on the heels of a major retrospective of her sculpture at the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Berkeley Art Museum here is Everytime a Knot is Undone a God is Released her first new and collected volume of verse The Palace of Luxury, and Other Stories Palace,1882
