Meditation is an essential part of the Buddhist way of life and Buddhist meditation practices cannot be explained apart from the fundamental doctrines of Buddhism Buddhaghosa the author of the Visuddhimagga The Path of Purification gave elaborate expositions of these fundamental doctrines As such his work has served not only as a manual of meditation but also as the standard work on Theravada Buddhism as a whole No other school of Buddhism has handed down to us a work of such importance Therefore the Visuddhimagga occupies a unique position in the field of Buddhism in particular and the religious literature of the world in general What is to the advantage of the scholar is sometimes to the disadvantage of the layman While going through the elaborate explanations of a certain topic in the Visuddhimagga one is liable to lose its thread and become confused This book gives a clear outline of the system and its essential points so that the details can be understood without much difficulty      The Four Foundations of Mindfulness U Silananda,2012-06-25 An absolute essential of Buddhist thought and practice In addition to practitioners of Insight meditation those who engage in other meditation forms such as dzogchen mahamudra and zazen will find that The Four Foundation of Mindfulness provides new means of understanding how to approach and deepen their own practices The entire Great Discourse is included here coupled with a beautifully clear commentary from the great scholar yogi Venerable U Silananda
