The Big Change:

The Big Change Frederick Lewis Allen, 2022-11-22 In Frederick Lewis Allen's The Big Change the reader is taken on a detailed journey through the transformative period of American history known as the Roaring Twenties. Allen masterfully captures the essence of this era, highlighting the economic boom, cultural shifts, and societal changes that defined the time. His writing style is both engaging and insightful, providing a comprehensive look at the impact of this period on American society. Through meticulous research and vivid storytelling, Allen paints a vivid picture of the complexities of the 1920s, offering readers a deeper understanding of this pivotal moment in history. Frederick Lewis Allen, a prominent historian and journalist, brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to The Big Change. His background in American history and keen insights into social dynamics make him the perfect author to tackle such a significant time period. Allen's passion for historical accuracy and storytelling shines through in this detailed account. I highly recommend The Big Change to any reader interested in delving into the intricacies of the Roaring Twenties. Allen's compelling narrative and in-depth analysis make this book a must-read for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of this transformative period in American history.

The Saturday Evening Post, 1954 Flag Burning and Free Speech Robert Justin Goldstein, 2000 When Gregory Lee Johnson burned an American flag as part of a political protest, he was convicted for flag desecration under Texas law. But the Supreme Court, by a 5 to 4 margin, overturned that conviction, claiming that Johnson's action constituted symbolic and thus protected speech. Heated debate continues to swirl around that controversial decision, both hailed as a victory for free speech advocates and reviled as an abomination that erodes the patriotic foundations of American democracy. Such passionate yet contradictory views are at the heart of this landmark case. Defining the criteria for Big bang or a dedicated process migration?* Max Brandenburg, 2020-11-16 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1.0 International School of Management Hamburg Campus ISM language English abstract SAP offers multiple ERP systems in its product portfolio which they have announced to change within the next ten years. Hence any business currently applying SAP ERP products will need to migrate from ECC 620 to S/4Hana after 2030 to maintain its operating business. That migration is as complicated as it is complex, which means that companies are dependent on third-party consultations for its completion. There are two main possibilities of how to implement such project: Through a big bang or a dedicated process migration. But what are the criteria for the different scenarios Which factors determine the approach of the project And more importantly which business aspects should be prioritized to guarantee a successful implementation Max Brandenburg examines three approaches for a S 4Hana transition i e brownfield greenfield and landscape transformation The author explains the concept of decision making and change management before evaluating and critically assessing a variety of implementation strategies His findings are concluded in the Brandenburg Migration Check which depicts company specific requirements systematical requirements as well as motives and aims for the digital transformation to S 4Hana Each factor and its strategic implications are defined The findings are based on the experiences of different in house as well as external consultants and are applicable to any kind of ERP change project
