York Times and nationally bestselling author and acclaimed multiple prize winner Laura Lippman delivers a brilliant novel about a woman with a secret life who is forced to make desperate choices to save her son and herself When Hector Lewis told his daughter that she had a nothing face it was just another bit of tossed off cruelty from a man who specialized in harsh words and harsher deeds But twenty years later Heloise considers it a blessing to be a person who knows how to avoid attention In the comfortable suburb where she lives she s just a mom the youngish widow with a forgettable job who somehow never misses a soccer game or a school play In the state capitol she s the redheaded lobbyist with a good cause and a mediocre track record But in discreet hotel rooms throughout the area she s the woman of your dreams if you can afford her hourly fee For more than a decade Heloise has believed she is safe She has created a rigidly compartmentalized life maintaining no real friendships trusting few confidantes Only now her secret life a life she was forced to build after the legitimate world turned its back on her is under siege Her once oblivious accountant is asking loaded questions Her longtime protector is hinting at new mysterious dangers Her employees can t be trusted One county over another so called suburban madam has been found dead in her car a suicide Or is it Nothing is as it seems as Heloise faces a midlife crisis with much higher stakes than most will ever know And then she learns that her son s father might be released from prison which is problematic because he doesn t know he has a son The killer and former pimp also doesn t realize that he s serving a life sentence because Heloise betrayed him But he s clearly beginning to suspect that Heloise has been holding something back all these years With no formal education no real family and no friends Heloise has to remake her life again Disappearing will be the easy part She s done it before and she can do it again A new name and a new place aren t hard to come by if you know the right people The trick will be living long enough to start a new life
