The Body And The Self:

The Body and the Self Jose Luis Bermudez, Naomi Eilan, Anthony Marcel, 1998-01-23 The Body and the Self brings together recent work by philosophers and psychologists on the nature of self consciousness the nature of bodily awareness and the relation between the two The central problem addressed is How is our grasp of ourselves as one object among others underpinned by the ways in which we use and represent our bodies The contributors take up such issues as how should we characterize the various distinctive ways we have of being in touch with our own bodies in sensation proprioception and action How exactly does our grip on our bodies as objects connect with our ability to perceive the external environment and with our ability to engage in various forms of social interaction Can any of these ways of representing our bodies affect a bridge between body and self

Food, the Body and the Self Deborah Lupton, 1996-04-25 In this wide ranging and thought provoking analysis of the sociocultural and personal meanings of food and eating Deborah Lupton explores the relationship between food and embodiment the emotions and subjectivity She includes discussion of the intertwining of food meaning and culture in the context of childhood and the family as well as the gendered social construction of foodstuffs food tastes dislikes and preferences the dining out experience spirituality and the civilized body She draws on diverse sources including representations of food and eating in film literature advertising gourmet magazines news reports and public health literature and her own empirical research into people's preferences memories experiences

Pathologies of Body, Self and Space Sean A. Spence, Peter W. Halligan, 2002 In this special issue of Cognitive Neuropsychiatry Spence and Halligan explore syndromes which arise with the dissociation of body and self with contributions drawn from an internationally renowned panel of authors

Body/Self/Other Luna Dolezal, Danielle Petherbridge, 2017-07-25 Body Self Other brings together a variety of phenomenological perspectives to examine the complexity of social encounters across a range of social political and ethical issues It investigates the materiality of social encounters and the habitual attitudes that structure lived experience In particular the contributors examine how constructions of race gender sexuality criminality and medicalized forms of subjectivity affect perception and social interaction Grounded in practical everyday experiences this book provides a theoretical framework that considers the extent to which fundamental ethical obligations arise from the fact of individuals intercorporeality and sociality
