New Organizational Designs Bob Truica, 1999-05-12 The organizational world today has been characterized in various terms: turmoil, chaos, the age of paradox, and unreason. Common to all these characterizations is that the conventional wisdom fails in responding to novel challenges triggered by the pervasive and radical change of organizations. This model was put on a test and elements of the nontraditional organization were identified in firms that have been around for quite some time: the public accounting industry and specifically its technologically most advanced segment.
