Spatial Policy Problems:

Policy Integration for Complex Environmental Problems Helen Briassoulis, 2017-07-05 The quest for policy integration crystallized in the 1990s as awareness was growing that the current supply of narrow sectoral and little coordinated or even overlapping and conflicting policies could not cope efficiently and effectively with contemporary complex cross cutting and interdependent socio environmental problems Combining and coordinating policies properly promises to address this institutional misfit add value to policies support planning at national and sub national levels and facilitate the transition to sustainable development more generally This book proposes a comprehensive conceptualization of policy integration and negotiates pertinent theoretical methodological and applied issues from the perspective of selected EU policies rural development regional development transport social economic environmental water resources and biodiversity policy Mediterranean desertification an exceptionally complex socio environmental problem is used as an illustrative example as the idea for this book transpired while researching the topic of policy making to combat desertification in the context of MEDACTION an EU funded research project Spatial Policy Problems of the British Economy Michael Chisholm, Gerald Manners, 2009-06-18 Interest in the geography of economic and social change has grown in Britain over recent years as people have become more aware of regional imbalances and as government influence on the evolution of the country's spatial systems has increased The processes of spatial allocation are becoming better understood as new techniques of analysis are developed But weaknesses and inconsistencies in public policies remain and have attracted the attention of workers in various disciplines particularly geographers This awareness is reflected in these essays most of which deal with economic rather than the social problems They demonstrate the wide range of issues on which geographers can make a relevant contribution Regions in Question (Routledge Revivals) Charles Gore, 2013-12-19 Originally published in 1984 Regional development planning has grown rapidly in recent years as both an academic specialism and a focus of policy and practice Books and articles on the subject have proliferated and all across the Third World governments have become committed to it setting up large new departments and even ministries Charles Gore argues that this growing popularity of regional planning in developing countries is profoundly paradoxical The Handbook of Maritime Economics and Business Costas Th. Grammenos, 2026-02-11 In its third edition this book is the founding title of the Grammenos Library also referred to as The Maritime Bible in more than 30 countries The diversity of the subjects covered in this book remains unique and is the result of research developed over many years The chapters are not only comprehensive in their coverage but also have important implications on real life issues in maritime business The new edition covers a vast number of topics including Shipping Economics and Maritime Nexus International Seaborne Trade Economics of Shipping Markets and Shipping Cycles Economics of Shipping Sectors Topics in Liner Shipping Decarbonisation and Green Shipping National and International Shipping Policies Aspects of Shipping Management and Operations Shipping Investment and Finance Port Economics and

Management and Maritime Clusters Aspects of International Logistics This book will be of use to university students researchers and academics It will also satisfy the curiosity and widen the knowledge horizon of practitioners and policy makers in the areas of shipping investment and finance shipbroking shipping operations shipping sustainability maritime law and marine insurance as well as port management energy and commodity trading and the wider supply chain Evaluation of Complex Policy Problems Andreas Faludi, Henk Voogd, 1985 Regional Development Problems and Policy Responses in Five Asian and Pacific Countries Ed. B. Prantilla, 1984 Urban Issues and Urban Policies in the New EU Countries Ronald van Kempen, Marcel Vermeulen, Ad Baan, 2005 This volume brings together case studies from Hungary the Czech Republic Poland Slovakia Slovenia Estonia Latvia Lithuania Cyprus and Malta to provide a comprehensive overview of these countries urban policies It provides new insights not only for the new EU countries but also for the existing ones

Geography Applied to Practical Problems James Henry Johnson, 1985 Wrecking a Region Ray Hudson, 1989 The impetus for this book came from the author's perception of and subsequent research into the dramatic changes taking place in his home region N E England for which he saw parallels in many industrialized countries He saw new factories opening as collieries closed railways being shut down as new roads were being built town centres being Law and Contemporary Problems, 1964 Criminology Hans W.
