In what will probably be the last survey made by a single scholar the whole of Latin literature from Livius Andronicus up to Boethius comes to the fore. Literature is taken here in its broad antique sense and therefore also includes e.g. rhetoric, philosophy and history. Special attention has been given to the influence of Latin literature on subsequent centuries down to our own days. Extensive indices give access to this monument of learning. The introductions in Von Albrecht's texts together with the large bibliographies make further study both more fruitful and easy. The Annual Report of the Committee on Legacies and Trusts Made in Common Council, May 24, 1838.
