Story Within:

Women, the Novel, and Natural Philosophy, 1660–1727 K. Gevirtz, 2014-03-06 This book shows how early women novelists from Aphra Behn to Mary Davys drew on debates about the self generated by the scientific revolution to establish the novel as a genre. Fascinated by the problematic idea of a unified self underpinning modes of thinking female novelists innovated narrative structures to interrogate this idea. Gospel Portraits K. Rex Butts, 2022-05-17 Many people realize that the cultural landscape of North America has shifted significantly. With such changes new challenges for how churches live as a proclamation of the gospel have and continue to emerge. These challenges are related to the church's participation in the mission of God and particularly how local churches live faithfully to God while remaining relevant to such challenges. Because Scripture is revered as God's word this matter also pertains to the way churches read Scripture since the Bible does shape how churches embody the gospel. Gospel Portraits addresses the intersection of mission and hermeneutics for churches within their local contexts. Believing the gospel calls the church to follow Jesus and bear witness to the kingdom of God. This book proposes that churches should read the Bible as a Christ centered and kingdom oriented narrative. This reading of Scripture allows churches to reimagine how they might embody the gospel within their local contexts. Discerning what a contextual embodiment of the gospel involves churches portray God's new creation in ways that are coherent with the biblical story and relevant to their local context. In doing so churches live as Christ formed and Spirit led communities portraying the gospel.

Creative Ideas for Ministry with the Aged Sue Pickering, 2014-09-30 Creative Ideas for Ministry with the Aged is a wise, timely and practical handbook that meets the urgent need for resources for ministry among the elderly. Written out of the author's own experience as a chaplain to a residential care community, it is suitable for ministers who visit the elderly, chaplains, pastoral visitors and caregivers and all who help train others in elderly pastoral care. Part 1 explores the key theological elements of ministry with the aged, focusing on themes such as the sacrament of the present moment. It asks what constitutes spiritual care and conversation with those whose minds and bodies are failing. Part 2 provides simple service outlines for reconnecting with old treasures and includes liturgies for communion services, services of the word and remembering special days. Parts 3 and 4 offer imaginative ideas for pastoral practices and spiritual activities using prayer, song, laughter, memory, touch, anointing and more to address questions of loss, letting go, forgiveness, dying and resurrection.

Re-Enchanting Education and Spiritual Wellbeing Marian de Souza, Anna Halafoff, 2017-09-14 Education is in a constant state of renewal internationally where it responds to a number of pressing social, political and cultural issues. Processes of globalization, a number of conflicts and acts of terror, economic and environmental crises have led to large waves of migration and asylum seekers arriving in countries with the hope of finding safer and more stable places to settle. This in turn has led to cultural and religious pluralism being a key characteristic of many societies with corresponding issues of belonging and identity. As well for many people there has been a shifting influence of and allegiance away from traditional religious frameworks with the emergence of new religious movements both peaceful and violent and a rise in popularity of spirituality and non religious worldviews which provide alternate frameworks for living healthy and ethical lives In order to prepare today s student for tomorrow s world one which is confronted by a range of risks and crises and which is being shaped by rapidly changing technologies educators and researchers are investigating new ways of equipping students to deal with these challenges and opportunities including the nurturing of spiritual wellbeing This book brings together the voices of many experienced educators to discuss ways to re enchant education and re enliven learning programs in response to these 21st century issues in an increasingly global and interconnected world It examines a range of international contexts including secular and religious educational settings and provides an avenue for visionary voices that identify problems and offer solutions to help shape a more promising education system that will prepare children more constructively and beneficially to flourish in their future worlds

Liffey and Lethe Patrick R. O'Malley,2017-03-01 Focusing on literary and cultural texts from the late eighteenth century to the early twentieth Patrick R O Malley argues that in order to understand both the literature and the varieties of nationalist politics in nineteenth century Ireland we must understand the various modes in which the very notion of the historical past was articulated He proposes that nineteenth century Irish literature and culture present two competing modes of political historiography one that eludes the unresolved wounds of Ireland s violent history through the strategic representation of a unified past that could be the model for a liberal future and one that locates its roots not in a culturally triumphant past but rather in an account of colonial and specifically sectarian bloodshed and insists upon the moral necessity of naming that history From myths of pre Christian Celtic glories to medieval Catholic scholarship to the rise of the Protestant Ascendancy to narratives of colonial violence against Irish people by British power Irish historiography strove to be the basis of a new nationalism following the 1801 Union with Great Britain and yet it was itself riven with contention
