Stranger And Friend:

The Nature, Design, and General Rules of the Stranger's Friend Society, as Established in Dublin, 1790 Stranger's Friend Society (Dublin, Ireland), 1799

Violence Against Women Holly Johnson, Natalia Ollus, Sami Nevala, 2007-11-23 In December 2006 the United Nations General Assembly adopted a resolution on intensification of efforts to eliminate all forms of violence against women A RES 61/143 This resolution followed the launch of the Secretary General's in-depth study on violence against women in October 2006 A/61/122 Add 1 and Corr 1 and is the first ever comprehensive action by the General Assembly on this persistent scourge that potentially affects one woman in three in the course of her lifetime

The resolution urges Member States to exercise leadership and devise systematic, comprehensive, multi-sectoral and sustained approaches adequately supported and facilitated by strong institutional mechanisms and financing to eliminate all forms of violence against women. In particular, it calls upon Member States to establish national plans of action on the elimination of violence against women, undertake legislative capacity building and awareness raising measures, provide services for women and ensure the systematic collection and analysis of data. The resolution calls upon the entities of the United Nations system to support national efforts especially with respect to data collection and the development of national plans of action. It urges them to enhance coordination and intensify their efforts to eliminate all forms of violence against women and girls. It also notes the need to provide adequate resources to efforts throughout the United Nations system to eliminate violence against women and girls.

It provides unique primary source material extensively annotated for clarity and context. Foxall's journals offer an eyewitness account of Methodist emigration and institutionalization as they were occurring They also provide some insight into the developing differences between American and British Methodism The journals contain information on recent technological innovations of the British Industrial Revolution and recount Foxall's interactions with a number of prominent persons both in British Methodism and outside it Because of Foxall's close relationship with Francis Asbury his status as an insider at the highest levels of American Methodism and his clear understanding of the British Methodism in which he was raised converted and first licensed as a local preacher his perspective is well informed and unique Introduction to Filipino History Teodoro A.
