Missionaries, Anthropologists, and Music in the Indonesian Archipelago Anna Maria Busse Berger, Henry

Spiller, 2025-03-18 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Although the history of Indonesian music has received much attention from ethnomusicologists and Western composers alike almost nothing has been written on the interaction of missionaries with local culture This study represents the first attempt to concentrate on the musical dimension of missionary activities in Indonesia In fourteen essays a group of distinguished scholars show the complexity of the topic while some missionaries did important scholarship on local music making recordings and attempting to use local music in services others tried to suppress whatever they found Many were collaborating closely with anthropologists who admitted freely that they could not have done their work without them And both parties brought colonial biases into their work By grappling with these realities and records this book is a collective effort to decolonize the project of making music histories The Seen and Unseen Worlds in Java, 1726-1749 Merle Calvin Ricklefs, 1998-01-01 An original and deeply researched work on a key period of Javanese history by a world expert Islamisation A. C. S. Peacock, 2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history Dutch Scholarship in the Age of Empire and Beyond Maarten

Kuitenbrouwer, 2013-11-21 How was the Royal Netherlands Institute of Southeast Asian and Caribbean Studies KITLV which at its inception in 1851 had fewer than a hundred members and only one part time employee able to flourish to become around the turn of the twenty first century a modern professional institute with 1 800 members with a staff of more than fifty employees The Institute was founded with support from the highest political and official circles to gather scholarly information about the Dutch colonies in the East and West not least to undergird colonial policy KITLV played an important role in this backed by the Ministry of Colonies and the business world The Japanese occupation and decolonization led to a difficult process of adjustment for KITLV which was concluded successfully With its unique collections publications research and its office in Indonesia and involvement in the Caribbean the Institute has an international reputation This book is more than a report on 160 years of KITLV history It is also a history of scholarly practice about the former colonies These activities and especially the publications of the institute and its prominent members are measured against key terms such as orientalism and imperialism universalism and relativism Writing the Past, Inscribing the Future Nancy K. Florida,1995 Located at the juncture of literature history and anthropology Writing the Past Inscribing the Future charts a strategy of how one might read a traditional text of non Western historical literature in order to generate with it an opening for the future This book does so by taking seriously a haunting work of historical prophecy inscribed in the nineteenth century by a royal Javanese exile working through this writing of a colonized past to suggest the reconfiguration of the postcolonial future that this history itself apparently intends After introducing the colonial and postcolonial orientalist projects that would fix the meaning of traditional writing in Java Nancy K Florida provides a nuanced translation of this particular traditional history a history composed in poetry as the dream of a mysterious exile She then undertakes a richly textured reading of the poem that discloses how it manages to escape the fixing of tradition Adopting a dialogic strategy of reading Florida writes to extend as the work s Javanese author demands this history s prophetic potential into a more global register Babad Jaka Tingkir the historical prophecy that Writing the Past Inscribing the Future translates and reads is uniquely suited for such a study Composing an engaging history of the emergence of Islamic power in central Java around the turn of the sixteenth century Babad Jaka Tingkir was written from the vantage of colonial exile to contest the more dominant dynastic historical traditions of nineteenth century court literature Florida reveals how this history s episodic form and focus on characters at the margins of the social order work to disrupt the genealogical claims of conventional royal historiography thus prophetically to open the possibility of an alternative future Focus: Gamelan Music of Indonesia Henry Spiller,2010-04-15 Focus Gamelan Music of Indonesia is an introduction to the familiar music from Southeast Asia s largest country both as sound and cultural phenomenon An archipelago of over 17 000 islands Indonesia is a melting pot of Hindu Buddhist Islamic Portuguese Dutch and British influences Despite this diversity it has forged a national culture one in which music plays a significant role Gamelan music in particular teaches us much about Indonesian values and modern day life Focus Gamelan Music of Indonesia provides an introduction to present day Javanese Balinese Cirebonese and Sundanese gamelan music through ethnic social cultural and global perspectives Part One Music and Southeast Asian History provides introductory materials for the study of Southeast Asian music Part Two Gamelan Music in Java and Bali moves to a more focused overview of Gamelan music in Indonesia Part Three Focusing In takes an in depth look at Sundanese gamelan traditions as well modern developments in Sundanese music and dance The accompanying downloadable resources offer vivid examples of traditional Indonesian gamelan music The Mon Over Two Millennia Patrick Andrew McCormick,Mathias Jenny,Christopher John Baker,2011 Berpikir dalam keseimbangan yang dinamis Alle G.
