Ten Tough Trips:

A Companion to the Literature and Culture of the American West Nicolas S. Witschi, 2014-02-03 A Companion to the Literature and Culture of the American West presents a series of essays that explore the historic and contemporary cultural expressions rooted in America's western states. Offers a comprehensive approach to the wide range of cultural expressions originating in the west. Focuses on the intersections, complexities, and challenges found within and between the different historical and cultural groups that define the west's various distinctive regions. Addresses traditionally familiar icons and ideas about the west such as cowboys, wide open spaces, and violence, and their intersections with urbanization and other regional complexities. Features essays written by many of the leading scholars in western American cultural studies. Ten Tough Trips William W. Bevis, 2004-04-01 Ten Tough Trips is William W. Bevis's literary journey through the works of ten of the West's most prominent authors including A. B. Guthrie Jr., D. Arcy McNickle, James Welch, Richard Hugo, Ivan Doig, and Norman Maclean. In a series of essays originally assembled to complement The Last Best Place, a Montana Anthology, Bevis deflates European myths of escape to a natural West beyond civilization and shows how Montana has developed its own voice true to the complications and austerities of a splendid land. His chapters on Native American writers have been especially well received. Through sensitive and discerning analysis, Bevis shows how love of the land can become more enduring and haunting even as the myths are stripped away, and in a new afterword he addresses the emergence of important women writers from 1990 to the present. Of particular note is his consideration of Mary Clearman Blew and her extraordinary memoir All But the Waltz, which Bevis believes to be a pioneering work reflective of the post-modern West. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. When her mentor Angela Perkins leaves for New York, Deanna risks everything for the chance to replace Angela on the air. The network's sexiest journalist Finn Riley admires Deanna's daring ambition.
