Life, Letters, and Epicurean Philosophy of Ninon de L'Enclos Ninon de Lenclos, 2022-09-15 In Life Letters and Epicurean Philosophy of Ninon de L'Enclos the author vividly chronicles the life and thoughts of one of the most fascinating figures of 17th century France. This compilation of personal correspondence and philosophical reflections showcases Ninon de L'Enclos not merely as a prominent salonnier but as a profound thinker engaged with the tenets of Epicureanism. Through her eloquent prose and keen insights, the work blends elements of autobiography with philosophical discourse, inviting readers to explore her nuanced views on love, desire, and the pursuit of happiness in a world rife with constraints. Ninon de L'Enclos, renowned for her wit and intellect, was a woman who navigated the complexities of male-dominated society with exceptional grace. An advocate for the rights of women and a venerated figure among literary giants, Ninon's own experiences of love and personal philosophy deeply informed her writings. Her vibrant salons attracted an elite intellectual circle, and her defiance of societal norms made her a towering figure in the French Enlightenment, leading her to articulate a philosophy of life that emphasizes pleasure, reason, and emotional freedom. This book is not only a testament to Ninon's extraordinary life but serves as an invitation to delve into the philosophical undercurrents that shaped her worldview. Readers interested in the intersection of gender, philosophy, and literature will find this work illuminating, as it challenges conventional narratives and inspires a deeper understanding of human desires and the essence of a fulfilled life. Genders 19 Ann M. Kibbey, Kayann Short, Abouali Farmanfarmaian, 1994-09. Sexual Artifice marks the evolution of Genders from a triannual journal to a biannual anthology. Henceforth, each volume will have a focus on a particular gender-related issue, offering original essays on the specific theme. This volume proposes that there is something more to the social construction of gender than what social science has been able to describe. On the contested state of international politics, public imagery, and nationalist cinema, the artifice of sexuality wields an enormous power to influence the interpretation of our social selves and the world we live in. These essays collectively explore the art of constructing gender in symbolic media images in poetry, photography, and montage in dramatic identity politics and, last but not least, in contemporary feminism itself. With original essays on Virginia Woolf's Orlando Anita Hill Clarence Thomas and the culture of romance Valerie Solanis the woman who shot Andy Warhol male hysteria and the U.S. invasion of Panama and representations of women in Northern Ireland Sexual Artifice offers up some of the most thought provoking and daring young scholarship in contemporary cultural and gender studies go to the Genders website NOAA Diving Manual United States.
