

Charter of Storytelling Rights

By David Denborough

Article 1: Everyone has the right to define their experiences and problems in their own words and terms.

Article 2: Everyone has the right to have their life understood in the context of what they have been through and in the context of their relationships with others.

Article 3: Everyone has the right to invite others who are important to them to be involved in the process of reclaiming their life from the effects of hardship.
