Strange Fugitive:

The Callaghan Symposium David Staines, 1981 Faith and Fiction Barbara Pell, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1998-11-02 Is it possible to write an artistically respectable and theoretically convincing religious novel in a non religious age Up to now there has been no substantial application of theological criticism to the works of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan the two most important Canadian novelists before 1960 Yet both were religious writers during the period when Canada entered the modern non religious era and both greatly influenced the development of our literature Faith and Fiction A Theological Critique of the Narrative Strategies of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan is a significant contribution to the relatively new field studying the relation between religion and literature in Canada After Green Gables Lucy Maud Montgomery, Ephraim Weber, 2006-01-01 After Green Gables brings to life a distinctly Canadian literary and intellectual association of writers Strange Fugitive Morley Callaghan, 1928 Suburbia Reconsidered, Volume 1 Pavlína Flajšarová, Jiří Flajšar, Florian Freitag, Becky Nicolaidis, Andrew Wiese, 2025-11-20 This 3 volume set examines how suburban spaces shape and reflect human experiences in North America Europe and Asia bringing together works by an international group of scholars who explore suburbia through critical analyses of literature culture sociology history politics and urban planning The multidisciplinary and international scope of each volume offers readers a wide breadth of perspectives Suburbia Reconsidered thus contributes significantly to the expanding field of suburban studies by offering novel insights into the representation of suburbs in literature the cultural significance of suburban environments and the socio economic challenges confronting suburban communities across the globe Volume 1 of this 3 volume set examines the depiction of suburban spaces in 20th and 21st century British American Canadian and French literature The contributors present original perspectives on how suburban environments influence human experiences and identities as reflected in literature Chapters in this section also probe the intersections of gender race and ethnicity within suburban fiction and traverse popular genres from detective novels to memoirs By integrating insights from literature cultural studies sociology history and urban planning Suburbia Reconsidered enhances our understanding of suburban spaces and their potential for positive transformation and encourages scholars to explore new methodologies and perspectives Nadine: the Study of a Woman Rosa Caroline Praed, 1883 Nadine Mrs. Campbell Praed, 1886 Caóba, the guerilla chief Peter Henry Emerson, 1897 The Correspondence of William Carlos Williams and Louis Zukofsky William Carlos Williams, Louis Zukofsky, 2003-12-04 Table of contents Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide New York and Toronto Novels after Postmodernism Caroline

Rosenthal,2011 Cities are material and symbolic spaces through which nations define their cultural identities The great cities that have arisen on the North American continent have stimulated the imaginations of the United States and Canada in very different ways This first comparative study of North American urban fiction starts out by delineating the sociohistorical and literary contexts in which cities grew into diverging symbolic spaces in American and Canadian culture After an overview of recent developments in the cultural conception of urban space the book takes New York and Toronto fiction as exemplary for exploring representations of the urban after postmodernism It analyzes four twenty first century novels two set in New York Siri Hustvedt s What I Loved and Paule Marshall s The Fisher King and two set in Toronto Carol Shields s Unless and Dionne Brand s What We All Long For While these texts continue to echo the specific traditions of nation building and canon formation in the United States and Canada they also share certain features All of them investigate the affective crossroads of the city while returning to a more realistic mode of representation Caroline Rosenthal is Professor of American Literature at the Friedrich Schiller University in Jena Germany
