How did beloved movie dogs become man killers like Cujo and his cinematic pack mates For the first time here is the fascinating history of canines in horror movies and why our best friends were and are still painted as malevolent Stretching back into Classical mythology treacherous hounds are found only sporadically in art and literature until the appearance of cinema s first horror dog Sherlock Holmes Hound of the Baskervilles The story intensifies through World War II s K 9 Corps to the 1970s animal horror films which broke social taboos about the good dog on screen and deliberately vilified certain breeds sometimes even fluffy lapdogs With behind the scenes insights from writers directors actors and dog trainers here are the flickering hounds of silent films through talkies and Technicolor to the latest computer generated brutes the supernatural rabid laboratory made alien feral and trained killers Cave Canem Beware the Dog or as one seminal film warned They re not pets anymore Merry Tales of the Monks Stephalius (pseud.),1893 Something about the Author Kevin S. Hile,1995 Series covers individuals ranging from established award winners to authors and illustrators who are just beginning their careers Entries cover personal life career writings and works in progress adaptations additional sources and photographs

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1994-04 General Custer, Libbie Custer and Their Dogs Brian Patrick Duggan,2019-03-22 General George Armstrong Custer and his wife Libbie Custer were wholehearted dog lovers At the time of his death at Little Bighorn they owned a rollicking pack of 40 hunting dogs including Scottish Deerhounds Russian Wolfhounds Greyhounds and Foxhounds Told from a dog owner s perspective this biography covers their first dogs during the Civil War and in Texas hunting on the Kansas and Dakota frontiers entertaining tourist buffalo hunters including a Russian Archduke English aristocrats and P T Barnum all of whom presented the general with hounds Custer s attack on the Washita village when he was accused of strangling his own dogs and the 7th Cavalry's march to Little Bighorn with an analysis of rumors about a Last Stand dog. The Custers' pack was rehomed after his death in the first national dog rescue effort. Well illustrated, the book includes an appendix giving depictions of the Custers' dogs in art, literature, and film. The Cumulative Book Index, 1995. A world list of books in the English language. Literature and the Child Bernice E. Cullinan, Lee Galda, 1998. With a slender design and appealing art, Cullinan and Galda present a thought-provoking discussion on how children can read to respond, read to learn, and read to enjoy. This text provides evaluation criteria for selecting superior children's books rather than listing thousands of titles and synopses. Booklists direct readers to quality literature and extended discussions of selected titles demonstrate the selection criteria. Multicultural literature is discussed throughout the text with a separate chapter on more specific multicultural issues. Numerous teaching ideas, many of which are contributed by classroom teachers, provide practical applications. This is a book for teachers stressing the use of good books in a literature-based curriculum. Major Authors and Illustrators for Children and Young Adults Laurie Collier, Joyce Nakamura, 1993. Seventeen-year-old Denny and her family face hard times when her father is injured on the rodeo circuit.

Presenting Lynn Hall Susan Stan, 1996. In Presenting Lynn Hall, Susan Stan draws a vivid picture of a woman whose own life past and present is reflected in her books. Hall's young adult novels often focus on the isolation of strong young women who have chosen to step outside the traditional female role. Stan uses The Solitary Hall's affecting portrait of a young loner to dramatize Hall's practicality, her determination, and her life on her own. Beginning with a visit to Touchwood Hall's country home, where she breeds Bedlington terriers, Stan reveals the author as a determined woman who recognized early on that she could not rely on anyone else to give her the life she wanted and who, during her twenties and thirties, worked single-mindedly to achieve her dream of living alone on an acreage where she could have horses and dogs. This insight into Hall's character informs Stan's analysis of Hall's works in the young adult genre. Stan effectively demonstrates how Hall's stories may be grouped around themes of survival, independence, and family relationships. Stan frames her examination of Hall's work with interesting and illuminating details of Hall's life as a breeder of champion dogs, her publishing history, and her relationships with editors and the roots of her solitary lifestyle. In doing so, Stan presents Lynn Hall as an example of how one self-described ordinary young woman persevered and wrote her way into a rather extraordinary life. Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books, 1991. For Younger Readers, 1994. The Writer's Directory, 1998-2000 Miranda H.

Pamela L. Tiedt,Iris M. Tiedt,1995 Himalayan Dialogue Stan Mumford,1989 In the mountain valleys of Nepal Tibetan communities have long been established through migrations from the North Because of these migrations over the last few centuries Tibetan lamaism as one of the world s great ritual traditions can be studied in the Himalayas as a process that emerges through dialogue with the more ancient shamanic tradition which it confronts and criticizes Here for the first time is a thorough anthropological study of Tibetan lamaism combining textual analysis with richly contextualized ethnographic data The rites studied are of the Nyingma Tibetan Buddhist tradition In contrast to the textual analyses that have viewed the culture as a finished entity here we see an unbounded ritual process with unfinished interpretations Mumford s focus is on the dialogue taking place between the lamaist and the shamanic regimes as a historic development occurring between different cultural layers The study powerfully demonstrates that interrelationships between subsystems within a given cultural matrix over time are critical to an understanding of religion as a cultural process
