Sunset Bomber:

The Sunset Bomber D. Kincaid, 1987      Sunset Bomber D. Lawrence Kincaid, 1989-01-01      Justice Denoted Terry White, 2003-09-30

White provides the most comprehensive scholarly compilation of fictional work of legal suspense in existence. Primarily a bibliography of novels, it also annotates plays, scripts for film and television, novelizations, and short story collections about lawyers and the law. The idea behind the principal of selection is to disdain labels that reduce the variety of the legal thriller to a subgenre of mystery fiction. Novels that range from suspense thrillers through science fiction to the philosophical novel are included if justice is thematically important. It is therefore an eclectic reference source beyond a compilation of books about lawyers as protagonists. Its biographical and scholarly information about authors, major and minor, and their novels or works is traditionally encyclopedic and objective regardless of whether the work has been genre defined or worse deified as a classic or denigrated as a bestseller. Many novels included are long out of print but historically interesting for their contribution to the lineage of the courtroom drama, showing that the history of the legal thriller is one of the major branches of modern literature since the Age of Reason. The criterion of justice denoted moves beyond the fact of lawyers and courtrooms to select seminal novels like Robert Travers' Anatomy of a Murder as well as the romantic potboiler. Among the more than 2,000 works are the Perry Mason novels of Erle Stanley Gardner, John Mortimer's Rumpole series, along with a staple of fiction by major authors of the genre like John Le Carre, Lisa Scottoline, Margaret Maron, Scott Turow, and John Grisham. There are also individual works by Shakespeare, Goethe, Kafka, Camus, and Twain delineating humanity's obsession with the law as its shining prop of civilization and alternative le noir of the common individual caught up in its maw. The appendices include comments by lawyer novelist Michael A. Kahn, a historical introduction to the legal thriller craft, notes by writers and prominent trial lawyers responding to author and lawyer questionnaires, bibliography of critical sources and articles, series characters, and the legal terminology found in courtroom dramas and novels. An essential reference tool for scholars, researchers, as well as the occasional reader of legal thrillers.

Fearing the Worst Samuel F. Wells Jr., 2019-11-26

After World War II, the escalating tensions of the Cold War shaped the international system. Fearing the Worst explains how the Korean War fundamentally changed postwar competition between the United States and the Soviet Union into a militarized confrontation that would last decades. Samuel F. Wells Jr. examines how military and political events interacted to escalate the conflict. Decisions made by the Truman administration in the first six months of the Korean War drove both superpowers to intensify their defense buildup. American leaders feared the worst case scenario that Stalin was prepared to start World War III and raced to build up strategic arms, resulting in a struggle they did not seek out or intend. Their decisions stemmed from incomplete interpretations of Soviet and Chinese goals, especially the belief that China was a Kremlin puppet. Yet Stalin, Mao, and Kim Il-sung all had their own agendas about which the United States lacked reliable intelligence. Drawing on newly available documents and memoirs, including previously restricted archives in Russia, China, and North Korea, Wells analyzes the key decision points that changed the course of the war He also provides vivid profiles of the central actors as well as important but lesser known figures Bringing together studies of military policy and diplomacy with the roles of technology intelligence and domestic politics in each of the principal nations Fearing the Worst offers a new account of the Korean War and its lasting legacy Sunset ,1922 Sunset Bomber 27 ,1988-01-05 The Sunset ,1923 The Land of the Midnight Sun Paul Belloni Du Chaillu,1881 The Gentleman's Magazine ,1882 The Gentleman s magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press the Trader s monthly intelligencer section consists of news foreign and domestic vital statistics a register of the month s new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs
