

"Let me not to the marriage of true minds
Admit impediments. Love is not love
Which alters when it alteration finds,
Or bends with the remover to remove.
O no! it is an ever-fixed mark
That looks on tempests and is never shaken;
It is the star to every wand'ring bark,
Whose worth's unknown, although his height be taken.
Love's not Time's fool, though rosy lips and cheeks
Within his bending sickle's compass come;
Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks,
But bears it out even to the edge of doom.
If this be error and upon me prov'd,
I never writ, nor no man ever lov'd"

The Intrusions Of Love Poems:

The Intrusions of Love Norman Friedman, 1992 The poems in this collection evoke particularly family life as well as carefully depicting landscape and using metaphor Love Poetry of the Literary Academies in the Reigns of Philip IV and Charles II Jeremy Robbins, 1997 Detailed consideration of the poetry of the literary academies with particular attention paid to the literary and social role of the academies in 17c Spain The Love Poetry of Francisco de Quevedo Julian Olivares, 1983-05-26 This study of the poetry of Francisco de Quevedo combines a stylistic analysis with a philosophical interpretation in the broad sense The Wireless Past Emily C. Bloom, 2016-11-08 The Oxford Mid Century Studies series publishes monographs in several disciplinary and creative areas in order to create a thick description of culture in the thirty year period around the Second World War With a focus on the 1930s through the 1960s the series concentrates on fiction poetry film photography theatre as well as art architecture design and other media The mid century is an age of shifting groups and movements from existentialism through abstract expressionism to confessional serial electronic and pop art styles The series charts such intellectual movements even as it aids and abets the very best scholarly thinking about the power of art in a world under new techno political compulsions whether nuclear apocalyptic Cold War propagandized transnational neo imperial super powered or postcolonial The Wireless Past chronicles the emergence of the British Broadcasting Corporation BBC as a significant promotional platform and aesthetic influence for Irish modernism from the 1930s to the 1960s This is the first book length study of Irish literary broadcasting on the BBC and situates the works of W B Yeats Elizabeth Bowen Louis MacNeice and Samuel Beckett in the context of the media environments that shaped their works Drawing upon unpublished radio archives this book shows that radio broadcasting rather than prompting a break with literary history and traditional literary forms in fact served as an important means for reinterpreting the legacies of oral and print traditions In the years surrounding World War II radio came to be seen as a catalyst for literary revivals and simultaneously a force for experimentation This double valence of radio the conjoining of revivalism and experimentation create a distinctive radiogenic aesthetics in mid century modernism Love Poems Thomas Hardy, 1963 Love Poetry in the Spanish Golden Age Isabel Torres, 2013 This work engages with a broader evaluation of early modern poetics that foregrounds the processes rather than the products of thinking The locus of the study is the Imperial home space where love poetry meets early modern empire at the inception of a very conflicted national consciousness and where the vernacular language Castilian emerges in the encounter as a strategic site of national and imperial identity The political is therefore a pervasive presence teased out where relevant in recognition of the poet s sensitivity to the ideologies within which writing comes into being But the primary commitment of the book is to lyric poetry and to poets individually and in their dynamic interconnectedness Moving beyond a re evaluation of critical responses to four major poets of the period Garcilaso de la Vega Herrera G ngora and Quevedo this study disengages respectfully with the substantial body of biographical research that continues to impact upon our understanding of the genre and renegotiates the Foucauldian concept of the epistemic break often associated with the anti mimetic impulses of the Baroque This more flexible model accommodates the multiperspectivism that interrogated Imperial ideology even in the earliest sixteenth century poetry and allows for the exploration of new horizons in interpretation Cover page 4 Poems of Alexander Montgomerie Alexander
