Khorrani, 2016-12-06 Explores how writers filmmakers and artists have attempted to reckon with the legacy of a devastating war The Iran Iraq War was the longest conventional war of the 20th century The memory of it may have faded in the wake of more recent wars in the region but the harrowing facts remain over one million soldiers and civilians dead millions more permanently displaced and disabled and an entire generation marked by prosthetic implants and teenage martyrdom These same facts have been instrumentalized by agendas both foreign and domestic but also aestheticized defamiliarized readdressed and reconciled by artists writers and filmmakers across an array of identities linguistic Arabic Persian Kurdish religious Shiite Sunni atheist and political Iranian Iraqi internationalist Official discourses have unsurprisingly tried to dominate the process of production and distribution of war narratives In doing so they have ignored and silenced other voices Centering on novels films memoirs and poster art that gave aesthetic expression to the Iran Iraq War the essays gathered in this volume present multiple perspectives on the war's most complex and underrepresented narratives These scholars do not naively claim to represent an authenticity lacking in official discourses of the war but rather they call into question the notion of authenticity itself Finding deciding upon and creating a language that can convey any sort of truth at all collective national or private is the major preoccupation of the texts and critiques in this diverse collection Outcasts United Warren St. John, 2009-04-21 BONUS This edition contains a reader's guide The extraordinary tale of a refugee youth soccer team and the transformation of a small American town Clarkston Georgia was a typical Southern town until it was designated a refugee settlement center in the 1990s becoming the first American home for scores of families in flight from the world's war zones from Liberia and Sudan to Iraq and Afghanistan Suddenly Clarkston's streets were filled with women wearing the hijab the smells of cumin and curry and kids of all colors playing soccer in any open space they could find The town also became home to Luma Mufleh an American educated Jordanian woman who founded a youth soccer team to unify Clarkston's refugee children and keep them off the streets These kids named themselves the Fugees Set against the backdrop of an American town that without its consent had become a vast social experiment Outcasts United follows a pivotal season in the life of the Fugees and their charismatic coach Warren St John documents the lives of a diverse group of young people as they miraculously coalesce into a band of brothers while also drawing a fascinating portrait of a fading American town struggling to accommodate its new arrivals At the center of the story is fiery Coach Luma who relentlessly drives her players to success on the soccer field while holding together their lives and the lives of their families in the face of a series of daunting challenges This fast paced chronicle of a single season is a complex and inspiring tale of a small town becoming a global community and an account of the ingenious and complicated ways we create a home in a changing world
