The Second Glot International State-of-the-Article Book Lisa Cheng, Rint Sybesma, 2014-10-15 The Glot International State of the Article books constitute the ideal solution for every one who wants to have a good idea of what the others are doing but does not have time to follow the developments in all other parts of the field on a day to day basis All articles were previously published in Glot International and have been revised and updated and special attention was given to the extensive bibliography which constitutes an important part of each overview article Among the essays in the first volume are overview articles dealing with VP ellipsis by Kyle Johnson Ergativity by Alana Johns tone by San Duanmu acquisition of phonology by Paula Fikkert and semantic change by Elizabeth Closs Traugott The second volume offers articles on subjects ranging from the development of grammars by David Lightfoot and markedness in phonology by Keren Rice to the syntactic representation of linguistic events by Sara Thomas Rosen optionality in Optimality syntax by Gereon Mller and the nature of coordination by Ljiljana Progovac Handbook of Philosophical Logic Dov M. Publications of the David Dunlap Observatory, University of Toronto David Dunlap Observatory, 1937 House documents, 1896 The Politics and Poetics of Irish Children's Literature Nancy Watson, 2009 Although the work of many contemporary Irish writers for children is often complex and sophisticated there is currently very little critical analysis to do it justice The aim of this book is to redress that situation and to prove that the best writing for children is no less complex and well written than the best adult fiction and offers valuable material for theoreticians With a detailed examination of selected texts by six Irish writers for children the book explores the reciprocal relationship between the different time and place of the child reader and the complexity and multiplicity of the world of the adult writer It suggests that putting the different forms of experience in dialogue with each other promotes a new understanding because it allows for other points of view and other ways of seeing This book also suggests that the way in which these writers implement the potential of the child reader's different perspective refutes the idea of the impossible relation between adult and child The opening chapter explores the attempt to re-create childhood and adolescence in a range of Irish memoir and fiction
