Raising Children Today Is a Job Patricia Solomon, 2016-07-21 This story is about the young men and women today and how they are being trapped in their own little cage by not doing the right things in life. When we people have children we have an obligation to teach discipline love them and let them know not to engage in what amuses people but to let them know that what they do in life will reflect on their lives in the future. Raising children is a job and we are failing our job by not listening to what is expected of us that is to give our children more than we have. They can't get it without education respect discipline and a lot of love and understanding of what they have to face. Let's stop having babies at a young age and start planning for our young men and women's future. We also need to put our priority in place first and leave man made things alone hatred greed drugs killing stealing sex before you have a husband or wife etc

Richard Neave, 2014-07-05 When children aged between 6 and 16 go missing over a period of five years whilst visiting different famous forests around London leaving very few clues to account for their disappearance the police are mystified as to where they may have gone and what may have happened to them. However everything is about to change when a senior police officer in a small Hertfordshire town is informed by one of his close friends that his friend's young nephews have suddenly disappeared. He immediately organises a search of the area including the local forest which leads him to discover not only similar clues to the previous cases of children who have gone missing from the forests around London but vital additional clues. So begins an investigation which uncovers past secrets that lead to the discovery of a major crime set up which is to leave a lasting effect on all concerned. This story is centred on the harsh realities and truths going on around us every day whilst we continue to go about our daily
