The Invisible Reader:

The Invisible Reader Bridget Penney, Paul Holman, 1995 The Invisible Book: The Knight Mr. Z, 2019-04-01 The Knight is a poetic book of a knight saving a kingdom from a dragon invasion. A first in a series of children's books. Rhyming scheme with advanced vocabulary including definitions in the footnotes. Use of psychological principles, phoneme manipulation and storytelling provides young children with rich reading experiences which can lay a foundation for literacy learning.

Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert, 2022-04-05 An examination of a series of diverse, radical and experimental international works from the 1950s to the present. What is a literary work? In Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert tackles this question by deploying an extended concept of literature examining a series of diverse, radical experimental works from the 1950s to the present that occupy the liminal zone between art and literature. These works by American Artist Allison Parrish, Natalie Czech, Stephanie Syjuco, Fiona Banner, Elfriede Jelinek, Dan Graham, Robert Barry, George Brecht and others represent a pluralized literary practice that imagines a different literature emerging from its elsewhere. Investigating a work's coming into being, its transition from text to work as a social object and pragmatic category of literary communication, Gilbert probes the assumptions and foundations that underpin literature including the ideologies and power structures that prop it up. She offers a snapshot from a period of recent literary and art history when such central concepts as originality and authorship were questioned and experimental literary practices ranged from concrete poetry and Oulipo to conceptual writing and appropriation literature. She examines works that are dematerialized, site specific, unique copies of other works and institutional critiques. Considering the inequalities, exclusions and privileges inscribed in literature, she documents the power of experimental literature to attack these norms and challenges the field's canonical geographic boundaries by examining artists with roots in North and South America, East Asia and Western and Eastern Europe. The cross-pollination of literary and art criticism enriches both fields. With Literature's Elsewheres, Gilbert explores what art can't see about the literary and what literature has overlooked in the arts.

The Pleasures of Reading Catherine Sheldrick Ross, 2014-06-27 Based on years of groundbreaking research, this book supplies a look at the unique relationship between each text and the individual reader that results in a satisfying, pleasurable and even life-changing reading experience. Following up on her critically acclaimed Reading Matters: What the Research Reveals about Reading, Libraries and Community, Catherine Sheldrick Ross takes a new look at pleasure reading through 30 thought-provoking essays based on themes arranged from A to Z. In short, lively chapters, she discusses topics ranging from Alexia, Bad Reading and Changing Lives to Romance Fiction, Self-help Titles, Vampires and Year of Reading. Drawing on her own research, as well as other published sources Ross comments on the significance of each theme provides examples of the phenomenon and develops the topic chronologically through further examples or through reversals The essays are unified by an underlying theory of reading that views readers as sense makers actively engaged in reading themselves into the text and reading the texts back into their own lives It gives educators and librarians insights into their roles with readers and offers a message about the importance of pleasure reading A short list of resources for further reading is supplied with each topic
