The Irish Nuns at Ypres, An Episode of the War Dame M. Columban, 2022-04-06
Excerpt The following narrative was originally intended as a record of the events it relates for the use of the Community only But shortly after the arrival of the Mother Prioress in England the manuscript was placed in my hands I soon formed the opinion that it deserved a larger circulation My friend Reginald Smith shared this view and so the story has come before the public It is in truth a human document of thrilling interest and will I believe make an abiding contribution to the history of this world wide war D M C though a novice in literary work describes with graphic force the transactions in which she and her Sisters played so conspicuous and so courageous a part The moving pictures which pass before our eyes in her pages are full of touching realism and throw curious sidelights on the manifold aspects of the titanic struggle which comes home to everyone and everything The heroism the self devotion the religious faith the Christian zeal and charity of those Irish nuns at Ypres in a terrible crisis in the history of their Order will I venture to say command universal respect and admiration mingled with pity for their fate and an earnest desire among all generous souls to help them in retrieving their fortunes A Note by the Prioress and an Introduction by Mr Redmond who amid his many onerous occupations is not unmindful of the duty which Irishmen owe to the historic little Community of Irish Nuns at Ypres form a foreword to a narrative which belongs to the history of the times
